Dear Mrs. Wynne,

Sometime ago someone sent me a clipping from a newspaper listing your name and stating that you would like to exchange data on a WYNNE family from Tennessee, especially descendants of PETER DAVIS WYNNE, born Nov.15,1826.

For many years I worked gathering information on a history of the Bean (Beene) & Wynne(Wynn-Winn) family...this took me back to 1725(and even earlier) in Virginia, Pittsylvania County...these were the very first records I could find on the Beans & Wynnes...then they came on into the territory which later became Tennessee...William Bean being the first settler...so says the history of Tennessee! This William Bean had a son named Robert, and his son(one of them) was Jesse Beene(1800-1881) and it is from this one that I descend. He spelled his name Bean until 1824 and his brother, Obadiah, along with the other brothers & sisters changed the spelling to BEENE in 1824, Marion County, Tennessee.

Jesse Beene married Naomi Pyburn and they were the parents of 11 children. Naomi died. Thomas Wynne(1800-1840) lived in Marion County(Sweeton's Cove.. nowcalled Sweden's Cove) and he married Nancy Sweeton(Sweeten & Sweden) and they were the parents of 12 children. Thomas Wynne had a twin brother John Wynne(both lived Marion County, Tennessee...John lived there until his death about 1862.(I have a fairly good history & genealogy on this John Wynne line written by Charles Elwynne Atnip, South Pittsburg, Tennessee for$3.00). We have not yet learned who the parents of Thomas & John were...do wish we could find out...several are searching. Thomas Wynne died 1840,Marion County.

Anyway, the Jesse Beene(1800-1881) and Nancy Sweeten Wynne(1801-1898) married each other and had three children of their own...making 25 children in all... (one of theirs died at birth, but the youngest lived to be 100...at least she almost did...just missed it by a few weeks.) Well, three of Jesse's children married three of Nancy's children( no relationship, see)...and I descend from one of those marriages...which makes me "kin" to all the Beans (Beenes) and to all the Wynne(Wynns or Winns). Some of our Wynne line changed the spelling to Wynn and to Winn.

Fifteen years ago we began to have a Bean(Beene) & Wynne(Wynn-Winn) Reunion and it has grown into an association, now. We have a president, vice-president and I serve as sec.-treas. We meet the second Sunday in June each year at Springhill, Louisiana at the City Park House. I live in Camden, Arkansas is the reason the cards are mailed from here. You see, Jesse Beene & his wife Nancy Sweeten Wynne Beene with their family moved to Webster Parish, Louisiana (Claiborne Parish until 1870)...they came in 1856 and are buried in the New Ramah Cemetery about 20 miles from Springhill, Louisiana....so, many of the kin live around Haynesville, Springhill, Shreveport, and Magnolia(Ark.) and so, actually, Springhill is the central point and we gather there from every where...from Maine to California. The day is too short to get around to all, but we spread a pot-luck lunch and visit with each other all we can.

In 1965, I compiled a book on the Bean(Beene) & Wynne(Wynn) Family and have sold almost 500 copies, now. They are $15.00 each and give a good history of the family from 1725 in Virginia. So, it might help you in your searching however, I do not have listed a Peter Davis Wynne anywhere in the book.

This Mr. Charles Elwynne Atnip, South Pittsburg, Tennessee (he will get his mail just this address) may be able to tell you if there is a Peter Davis Wynne in his line of the Wynne family. Many members of the Wynne family moved to Claiborne, Webster, Bossier Parish, and other Parishes in Louisiana long about 1850-60-70...then between 1880-1890, so many of them moved on to Texas (our line that changed the name from Wynne to Winn moved on to Texas and they live now around Levelland, Texas...reared a large family.)

I shall keep in mind your Peter Davis Wynne and if I should see or hear the name from any source, I shall inform you. I am a history and genealogy "bug" from way back and always like to help anyone if I can do so.

Anytime that you can make it to our reunions in Springhill, Louisiana, we shall be most happy to have you. It was a pleasure hearing from you.

Most Sincerely,

Mrs. Fred Looney

Thomas Wynn died ca. 1840
Naomi Pyburn died 2 Aug. 1841, then Jesse Beene + Nancy Sweeten Wynn and they had 3 more ch. (one stillborn - Frances)

One of these 3, Cynthia Emily (Aunt Tish) m. 1st Jesse C. Beene, son of Joseph Hamilton Beene
The other Wynn+Beene marriage was my MARTHA BEENE, dau. of John Beene, to JOHN WYNN, son of Thomas and Nancy Didn't list Obadiah's, Elizabeth's, and Sarah's children because of crowding, but there were also intermarriages among others, especially OBADIAH'S + ROBERT, Jr's descent.

Re: Marriage of Richard W. Wynn and Mary Richardson 26 March 1816.

I had hoped this would give us a link. It now appears that my Richard W.
Wynn, more likely was born in 1813, or changed his birth date. He ~~is~~ reportedly could not read or write.
He is shown the census as a brother, b. 1809, S.C.

My father collected the information on p 2 & 3 (and a lot more) in 1969. When he was unable to find out, by checking with relatives, who Richard's parents were, or where he was born, he discontinued the search. Dad does have a good bit of information about descendants.

Dad is now moving into retirement and may be ready to pick up the hunt. He is discovering a lot of kin around Natchitoches that he never knew ~~existed~~ existed. We have not been able to establish a link to the Wynn of Natchitoches.

Dear Bob,

Sorry I am so slow with my correspondences, but I was "gone to Texas" for over 2 weeks and I can't seem to catch up. Need to do work outside but keep having floods and so 'tis too wet to do that.

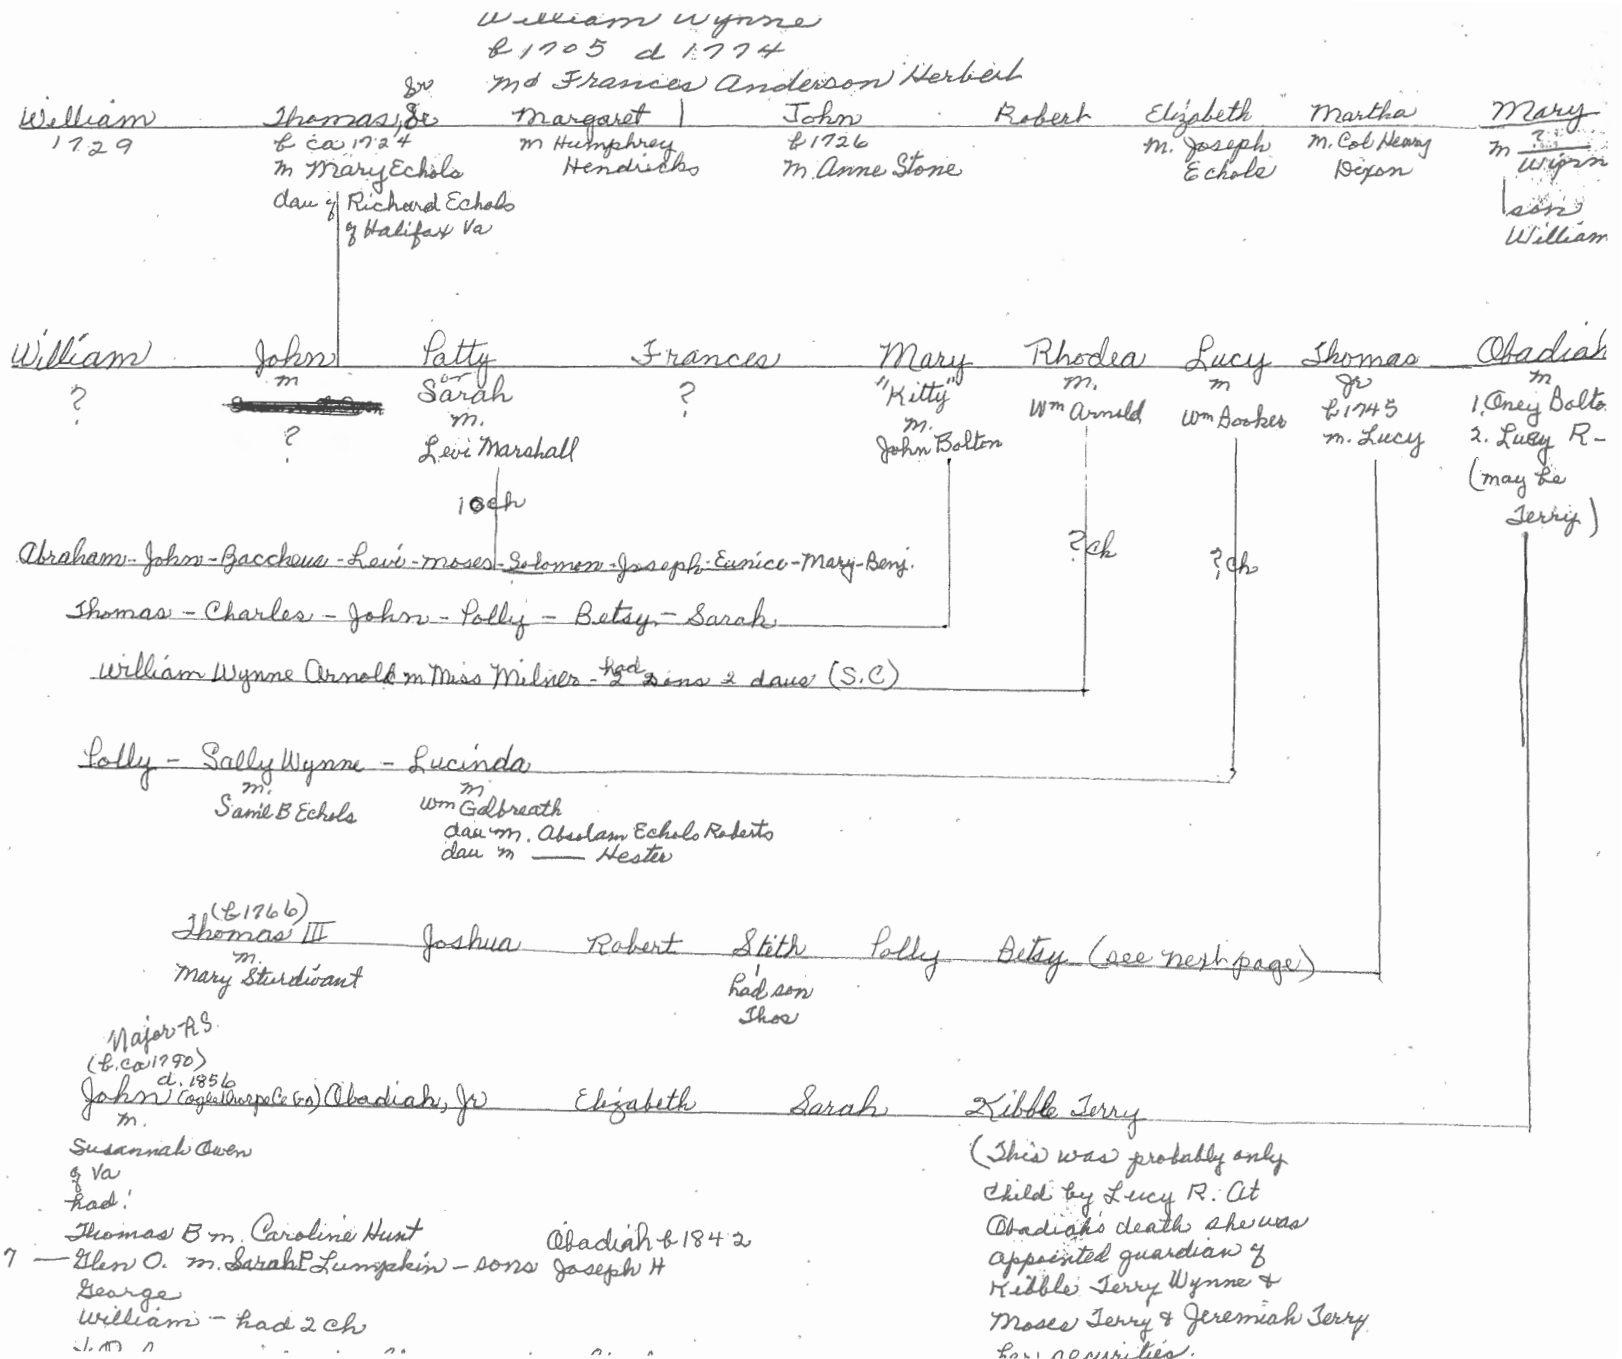

Do hope this finds you well - know you are terrifically busy, too.

I have received a letter from E. Wynne Atrop AND HE TELLS ME that Thomas Wynn in his book marrying Kate Gayle (p. 18) is a mistake. This Thomas was son of William and he married Mary Echols, dau of Richard Echols of Halifax, Va. They moved to Georgia ca 1785-95 with several of their children - Wilkes Co. Shall send you a chart to show how they go.

Hope this honest mistake hasn't goofed you up too much.

I have some more marriage records, too but don't expect to get them off in this letter.

Dear Mr. Landrum:

Attached is a Xerox copy of all my WINN Family notes. There are arranged in accordance with my deduction of relationships and you, with your much greater information, may not be in agreement. I should appreciate your comments and corrections.

My research had not yet get back to Prince George County. It was less than a year ago that I learned Virginia microfilmed deed and will records could be borrowed on Interlibrary Loan. I was going great guns on the Lunenburg County records when the Virginia State Library decided not to lend these microfilmed records anymore, so my research is perforce at an end. (My husband is an invalid, thus I am "an armchair genealogist.")

The Deedbook abstracts are my notes taken from the microfilmed records. The abstracts of the wills of Daniel Winn and Joseph Winn were made from the photocopies which I bought from the Virginia State Library Archives Division.

No doubt there is very little of this information which you do not already have, but I hope that you may be able to find something new among my notes.

You had not included the name of William H. Brown when you sent me the information about his Neisz, Brown, and Winn lineage. Upon receipt of your letter of July 22 I looked him up in the September GENEALOGICAL HELPER and found that two more names in his lineage - STOVALL and PARKER - also appear in my husband's; and WHITE appears in my own. Although I had no reason to believe that any of his lines - other than possibly NEISZ - might be associated with either my husband's or my own, I wrote to him because the coincidence is so interesting and I thought he might be interested in knowing about it too. His reply came yesterday and confirms the lack of kinship.

In your form letter of April 1971 you mentioned that you were enclosing a copy of THE WYNN FAMILY AND KINSMEN ASSOCIATION Constitution. This was not included either at that time or later when I joined. I should be interested in having a copy, please.

Note: CAPT. ROBERT WYNNE was, in his day, one of the most influential men in Virginia. Beginning his service as representative for Charles City Co. at the sessions of March 1657/8 and March 1659/60, he was during the entire existence of Virginia's "Long Parliament" 1661-1674, Speaker of the House of Burgesses. It would appear from his will that he married a widow Peythress. The Woodliefs are believed to be descendants of Capt. John Woodlief, who came to Va. in 1620 to take care of the well-known Berkeley plantation. ... Robert Wynne's sons were living and married early in the 18th century. Thomas Wynne, gent, of Prince George Co., was living in 1707, aged 50. In November of the same year he, together with Agnes his wife, made deeds, recorded in Surry, to his daughter Mary Lelone, his sons Robert Wynne. Major Joshua Wynne and Mary his wife deeded a tract of land in Surry in 1708. In that year he was a justice of Prince George Co. These brothers are believed to be ancestors of the Wynnes of southern Virginia.

11:59 Note - COL. ROBERT WYNNE was a member of the House of Burgesses for Charles City, and speaker from 1661-1674 inclusive. He is believed to have lived in that portion of the county which was on the south side of the James River, and on account of the destruction of the early records of Charles City and Prince George, no detailed information in regard to him can be obtained. He is believed to have descendants in Prince George and adjacent counties.

Re: Wynne Family, etc.

Dear Bob: Enclosed is my $5.00 check # 7492 for dues in the family association and my thanks for your 2/4/75 letter.

The gravestone of my grandfather, Alfred Washington Winn, indicates he was born in 1863 and, since he came from Laurens County, South Carolina, I assume he was born there.

I will try to get better information and furnish same.

With best regards, I am

Dear Mr. Landrum:

Thank you for Volume 2 of the proceedings of the Wynne Family and Kinsmen Association received today.

If possible, at this early date, I am interested in fitting my family into the scheme of things. For that purpose, I am enclosing five sheets marked as follows:

1. Immediate family of J.M. Winn and Emily F. Franks
- 2 & 3. Two sheets reflecting my family tree running back to J.M. Winn and Emily Franks (obviously these must be fastened together)
4. Immediate family of J.M. Winn and Mary Ann McCartney
5. Tree running back to Howell ap David, in the lower right corner of which appears the name of James Monroe Winn.

Could my greatgrandfather, J.M. Winn, be James Monroe Winn, who apparently descended from Minor Wynne?

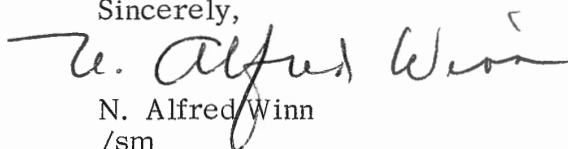

The spelling "Winn" appears to stem from what I understand was a dispute between Minor Wynne and Richard Winn, brothers, after which Richard changed the spelling of his name.

I will appreciate your answers to my questions.

I do not recall having sent you any money recently, though I understand the dues are $5 per year. If true, can you indicate how much I owe?

Thanking you for your courtesy and with best regards, I am

Sincerely,

N. Alfred Winn

Dear Mr. Landrum,

I am interested in the genealogy of the family Wynne-wynn-Winn, and in the Wynne Family Association. How do I go about joining?

I Need a link between my great, great, grand father Richard W. Winn, b. 4 May 1818, South Carolina and his ancestors. We know of a General Richard Winn of Virginia, who rose in the militia of South Carolina, died 19 December 1818.

Other prominate first names in my family are Marshal and John. Your information and suggestions are appreciated.

Sincerely,

Perry Lee Winn

Re: Wynne-Wynn-Winn

Dear Mrs. Winn and Mrs. Martin,

I am interested in the genealogy of the above family and am glad to help collect information. If Mrs. Martin has completed a book, I would like to review it.

From the earliest known ancestor of my line:

Richard W. Winn, born 5-4-1818, at S.C., married ca 1846, settled in Robeline, La. Known to be a man of some wealth. Believed to be from So. Carolina and to have brothers. Died 4-2-1880.

Richard Marshal Winn, born 6-12-1855, son of Richard W. Winn. Lived and died at Robeline, La. Married 4-18-1875. Died 3-8-1930.

Gilbert Jerome Winn, born 3-10-1881, son of Richard Marshal Winn. Married Polly Anna Daniels. CHILDREN: Clifford Clarence W., Jerome Vance W., Tessie Bell W. (Vickers), John Richard W., Francis G. W., Died 7-21-1962.

Clifford Clarence Winn, born 12/8/09, son of Gilbert Jerome W. Married Ruth Eleanor Sullivan 6/25/33. Completed business course, became a general merchant, Justice of the Peace. Children: Perry Lee W., James Leslie W., Judy Carol W. (Warren).

Perry Lee Winn, born 7/23/36, Natchitoches, La., son of Clifford Clarence W. Married Christelle Wailes 7/3/54. Capt. Inf. USAR. Member Academy of Certified Social Workers. Children: David Lee W., Born 4/16/55, Janice Faye W., Born 5/15/57, ~~Both~~ <sup>All above</sup> at Natchitoches, La.

Write my father, C. C. Winn, 1344 Williams Ave., Natchitoches, La 71457, for more information. He may know contact persons in So. Carolina, and missing dates, etc.

Do you have any information of General Richard Winn, a lawyer of Louisiana? My wife and I came across what may have been his grave, in an abandoned graveyard near Alexandria, La. Most of my line are buried at Robeline back to Richard Marshal Winn. (or Richard W. Winn)

Central cemetery

Let me know in what ways I can be of further help.

Sincerely,

Perry L. Winn

Dear Mr. Landrum:

I appreciated your letter so very much, and thought I would copy some information and get it back to you promptly. However due to the illness of my mother I have not been able to do much. She was hospitalized for three weeks in Memphis, Tennessee and has since been in our local hospital. I was with her during these periods of hospitalization and have been so far behind with everything that I haven't had a chance to work on family records but very little.

I am still very much interested and will send you some more information later.

Enclosed are some things that might be of help.

Sincerely,

Ruth Wynn

Dear Brother Gilbert Wynn and Sister Frances Lane:

Great pleasure to receive your letter. My family are well. Hope you are well. We lost Sis and Etta our children of diptheria in October, 1862. Porter Wynn died in 1861. Father's family all well. Bud Wynn is as large as you. Gilbert, Dock Flynt died in the war in Virginia. Sis and Etta died of our children. We have five still living, Thomas, Isabeler, Gideon, Charley, Anna Laura. I heard from brother Jo this last spring. He is doing well on a good tract of land in Parker County, Texas. I want to see you all very bad. It has been so long since I've tried to write. I lost about $8000.00 worth of plank, burned during the war. Write soon. Tell Frances and Nancy.

Your affectionate brother,

Gideon P. Wynn

-----
Tishomingo County, Mississippi
December 21, 1871

Sister Frances:

We are well. Have six children living. Mary Frances, Nancy Eter and Robert Ridley have gone home to die no more. Father and family are well. Gilbert Wynn arrived at Iuka last September 2 and died October 2, 1871 at Sam Haner's. I went to see him but he was past speaking. Did he have any unsettled business there? Tell all our relations howdy for me. I hope to meet you if not on earth then in that land prepared for all who trust the Lord.

Your brother,

G. P. Wynn

Dear Sister Frances:

We are well. Hope you are. I want to see you all very much. Tell Laura and Tenne that Dug and Bell is gone to Texas two weeks tomorrow with Joe Dean and Charley Wright. All children but Dolley have left me. Tell Mr. Lane to bring you to see us. Glad Tenne came down last fall. The children said if me and you could meet, I would shout. Not common for a Wynn to shout, they will laugh when happy. The Lord has been good to me and I hope also to you, deas sister. Tell Tenne to come to Mississippi and eat beef for better health. Give my love to all. Write soon.

Your brother,

G. P. Wynn

THE
ROBERT L. LANDRUM, JR.
COLLECTION

Dear Robert Landrum:

I am a bit pokey in filling out the enclosed application, but am delighted that my cousin, Mrs. Wynne Matthies, took time out to join me up. It is most fantastic the way I got pulled into the genealogical fun, on several lines, and almost all of a sudden---but far more delectable are the little stories that come out of it all. For instance, there were no Wynn relatives to ~~talk~~<sup>ask</sup> of. Just a few legends and seldom-told-tales here and there. I am 75 so when I speak of my father and grandfather Wynn, that means it wasn't yesterday that I recalled hearing my father tell that he had an uncle who went to the gold rush from Crawford County, Ark, and was never heard of again. I ~~did~~ not even ask my father what his uncle's name was, for I knew my father was not born until fourteen years after the gold rush and never knew this uncle.

I hope that Wynne has signed up another cousin, Mrs. Opal Wynn McNutt of Lubbock. Some four years ago I had a letter from Opal. I will not go into the details of all this, but she told me she had heard I was so-and-so and that being the case we had the same great-grandfather. She knew her grandfather was a half-brother to my grandfather. She told me where they lived in Parker County, Texas. Being 25 years older than she was, I could go her one better and tell her I remembered her grandfather and her father from my early childhood. What did I know? She didn't know anything she admitted. Well, I knew they came to Texas from Crawford County, Ark., so she went to work on the census and soon found our great-grandfather was Zealy M. Wynn. Oh, I knew too that my grandfather, James Preston Wynn, first served in Missouri in the civil war and that he was born in Missouri. The census certainly was kind to me, for some of my siblings later told me they thought I just dreamed this up. I was

Note--On the back of the application sheet I am listing only sketchy data but it is enough to pinpoint me in the Wynn structure until we have more complete information.

-shocked to see that most any little tidbit of memory I could scrape up for Opal enabled her to sink her teeth into what she was doing. I even told her my great-uncle went to California. Well, he could have been killed by Indians en route. He didn't come back and some 116 years had passed.

One day Opal found in the Genealogical Helper a notice that someone wanted to contact Wynns in Arkansas and Texas. This proved to be Wynne of Los Gatos. Robert Landrum, I hope you get to meet this PERSONALITY. She is my fourth-cousin, or second cousin once removed, as you please. She is the most energetic Wynn I'm sure was ever born. She is 47 and a grandmother.
Opal wrote to her and found Wynne had been working for some time on the descendants of one William Morgan Wynn who went to California in 1849.
The census for 1850 was kind to us. William M. was already gone but his father Zealy put him on the records anyway. And there were my ~~William~~ ~~Preston Wynn~~ James Preston Wynn and several others, ending with Zachary Taylor Wynn, Opal's grandfather. I had some unidentified little pictures of four Wynn children with names on the back--George W., Harmon, Mary J., and Stonewall Jackson Wynn. I didn't know how these pictures came i my family's possession since my father said no one ever heard from that uncle. SOMEBODY did hear, for when Opal sent the pictures to Wynn for a look-see, Wynne had copies of the same pictures and her grandfather, son of William Morgan Wynn, was the Harmon Wynn in one of the little pictures.
Now there was great rejoicing, I can tell you. A thousand "cute" things began to pop up. Opal had already found that Zealy Wynn was our great-grandfather. He is Wynne's great-great-grandfather. She had a Zealy in the younger connection in California but didn't know where the name came from. Opal had a half-uncle Zealy. As for me I remembered my father spoke of Zeal Wynn. This could have been his grandfather, or it could have been hi half-cousin Zealy Wynn, the half-uncle to Opal. Oh, yes, they all marry twice.... It was not long before one of these, Opal or Wynne---no, I will take it back, it was a third-cousin of mine on my

Frazier Line who first got tipped off by Mr. Hugh Parks of the Van Buren

Argus that there is an old Wynn Cemetery, or the remnants of it, in Crawford County, Ark, and interest in it has been revived by the erection of a monument to one Parley Parker Pratt, an early apostle of the Mormon Church who was murdered on the Zealy Wynn farm in 1857 and was buried in Zealy's family plot. Now who were the parents of Zealy M. Wynn?

I think Wynne and Opal have about cleared it up that one William Wynne--note the spelling--in Tazewell Co., Va., who married Mary Harmon, was father of a Harmon Wynn who is most likely the father of Zealy and Josiah Wynn and others. We know that a Josiah with wife Caroline was a brother to Zealy. Now, this information I am going to let Wynne Matthies give to you. But I do not think she will give it further back than Zealy M. Wynn because she is not sure yet about Harmon. Oh, she and Opal are tracing and chasing Wynns all over the country, I can assure you. They came to my city last April and found some very good things in the Texas libraries. They will come again. I do not see well and have been saving back local research. I have found out a good many things for the Wynn records through a researcher in Nashville. Wynne has dates on her great-great-grandfather and picture of his gravestone and the census listed him as born in Tennessee. Our researcher in Nashville has found that Zealy Wynn and his wife's relatives were in Carroll County, Tenn. in 1828, the year that William M. was born. They were en route from Alabama to Missouri. Census says that Josiah and Zealy were born in 1798 and 1800 respectively in Virginia. We know Zealy first married a Miss Estes who was daughter of Andrew Estes and Mary Gibson of South Carolina. I had long known that my father's grandfather on his father's side was Andrew Estes but this was not helping Opal much because she descended from a second marriage. Wynne and I think we both descended from this Miss Estes but it has not come to light yet in Missouri just what her first name was. I am getting far afield, but I do wish to let you know we are people and we are enjoying this search. I have accumulated many Wynns of the later generations which I have not tabulated for Opal and Wynn as yet. I rather dislike to begin sending them to you until I have a complete check-up with these two Wynns. In time, I would like to know just how much information you take. I believe if Wynne, who seems to have most of the information in hand would give it to you, it would keep down duplication.

Wynne's mother who was a Wynn, was taught that the name was originally Wynn and she found the William Wynne in Tazewell County, Va., spelling it that way. I think she has found it Harmon Wynn for the next generation, and it seems definite that it is ~~X~~ Zealy M. Wynn, but one early census spelled it Winn. My father who was William Preston Wynn, born in Johnson County, Texas in 1863, was taken back after the war to live sixteen years in Crawford County. Then his father, James Preston Wynn, came to Parker County, Texas, in about 1881. James Preston told his children to spell it Wynn. My father said that his father specified that it was Wynn and his father before him --that would be Zealy--had insisted on Wynn.

Moreover, there was a threat if any of the children were caught spelling it otherwise. I lived two years in Virginia, 1929-31. and found Wynns, Wynnes, and Winns on every turn, and down in North Carolina too. I never tried to rake up any kinship, but now I know that my great-grandfather Zeal was born in Virginia. Opal and Wynne have written to Winns in Alabama and just about traced down <sup>for Mississippi Winns</sup> their lost Joe Wynn, who, to make it very mystifying seems to ~~X~~ be the Joe Wynn to whom a <sup>maternal</sup> great-aunt of mine, a civil war widow, was married for a short time. This Joe Wynn was descended from Gideon Winn. We have not connected Gideon with Zealy as yet. When we get the Wynne lines in a book we may see the picture better. I hope I have not bored you to extinction. For one who knew almost nothing about the Wynns, four years ago, I find I do know quite a bit after all. We three Wynns have recently had a lot of fun with Susan Swinburn's new book, "History in Headstones" from Crawford County, Ark. The chapter on the Wynn Cemetery plus other stories on it by Mr. Parks should be rewritten into the Wynne Book. Remember this, Mrs. Wynne Matthews is the Wynn I am proud we found. Incidentally her grandsire did not go to the gold rush. He went to farm.

Sincerely, just one of the Wynns, AKM

Mr. Wynne,

I am very enthusiastic about The Wynne Family and Kinsmen Association. Attached is my check in the amount of $5.00, the application form, and also a copy of a will made in 1826 by my greatgreatgrandmother. I can also furnish copies of letters written 1860, 1870, etc. from an uncle here to relatives in Tennessee giving family names. I would have included them at this time but I was not sure you were ready for such. I will be happy to help in any way I can.

Good luck!

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Haines:

Before the death of my father if I had questions about family he could usually come up with an answer. Since his death I have had so many unanswered questions that I started writing down what I knew or could learn about my family and before I realized it was "hooked" on family history.

From friends who have been doing this sort of thing for a long time, I have secured magazines on genealogy and it was from one of these that I found your name.

A will recorded in 1826 in Wilson County, Tennessee gives the following names of Rebecca Wynns' children: (The name was spelled Wynns.)

Elizabeth
Ridley
James
Frances

Polly
Rebecca
Judy
Joseph B.

Marriage records in Wilson County show Frances Wynne married William McCulla, Polly Wynne married Avery Allen, Rebecca Wynne married Baxter Jefferson Wynne, and Judith Wynne married Robert Gwynn. I assume these are the same people as the ones named in the will.

Ridley Buncombe Wynn, born 1799, was my greatgrandfather. An old census record shows he gave his birthplace as North Carolina. It is believed that his mother's name was Nash but we are not sure. I do not know the name of his father.

Ridley married Fannie Miles in Wilson County, Tennessee in 1816 and they had the following children:

Gilbert
Thomas R.
Joseph
Gideon P.

Nancy Ann married G. W. Brown
Frances married J. H. McChristian and James Lane

He lived in Wilson, Ratherford, Bedford and Lincoln Counties Tennessee and later came to Tishomingo County Mississippi where he is buried.

In Lincoln County he married Rebecca Bailey Hopkins and they had the following children:

William H.
Twins - George Edward
Samuel Augustus
Milton L.

Mary Jane Married McKee and Durham
Florinda married Hanna
Bettie married Woodall

There may have been other children of both marriages. Also Bird Wynn and Porter Wynn were close relatives.

Do any of these names mean anything to you? I would appreciate any information you have or suggestions about how I might go about learning more.

I have quite a bit of information on the Wynn line that I have obtained from various sources which does not apply to me that I know of at this time. I will be glad to check to see if I have anything that might be of help to you if you would like to give me information about your family.

Sincerely,

Ruth Wynn

Dear Mrs. Landrum.

Mrs. Holbert of Utah sent me a copy of your letter and I was very impressed with it, the Wynn association plan and also in seeing your address was familiar since our Peter Davis Wynn seems to have lived in Buato ~~to~~ parish most of his married life and died there and his children by his first wife married there perhaps. But after his death his second wife sold out and came to Texas with her family and my husband's father was one of the children by his second marriage.

I have not been able to pick up P.D. in the 1850 Census. but the 1880 Census in Buato Parish shows him and his parents both born in N.C. - but where and I have no idea who his father was or what any of his brothers names. <sup>Wife</sup> P.D. has one daughter still alive but she was so young she don't remember much, said she believed her father had a brother

Joe or Josiah and she remembered a cousin
Henry visiting them and then there was a cousin Luther that lived in Liverpool, Tenn. said most of her dad's folks lived at Memphis, Tenn.

I have an old wife of a Peter D. Wynne in 1859 that he only mentions one son but I believe our Peter D.
was married by then, so could be he had decided then their land before the wife. I found this in another one of my lines. I need some one in this find so many places don't or won't put out any time on these records. but if you have a personal contact and they will send you a page number and the no. of

I have quite a lot of Wynne notes and would be

From: The SHREVEPORT JOURNAL, Tuesday, October 29, 1968

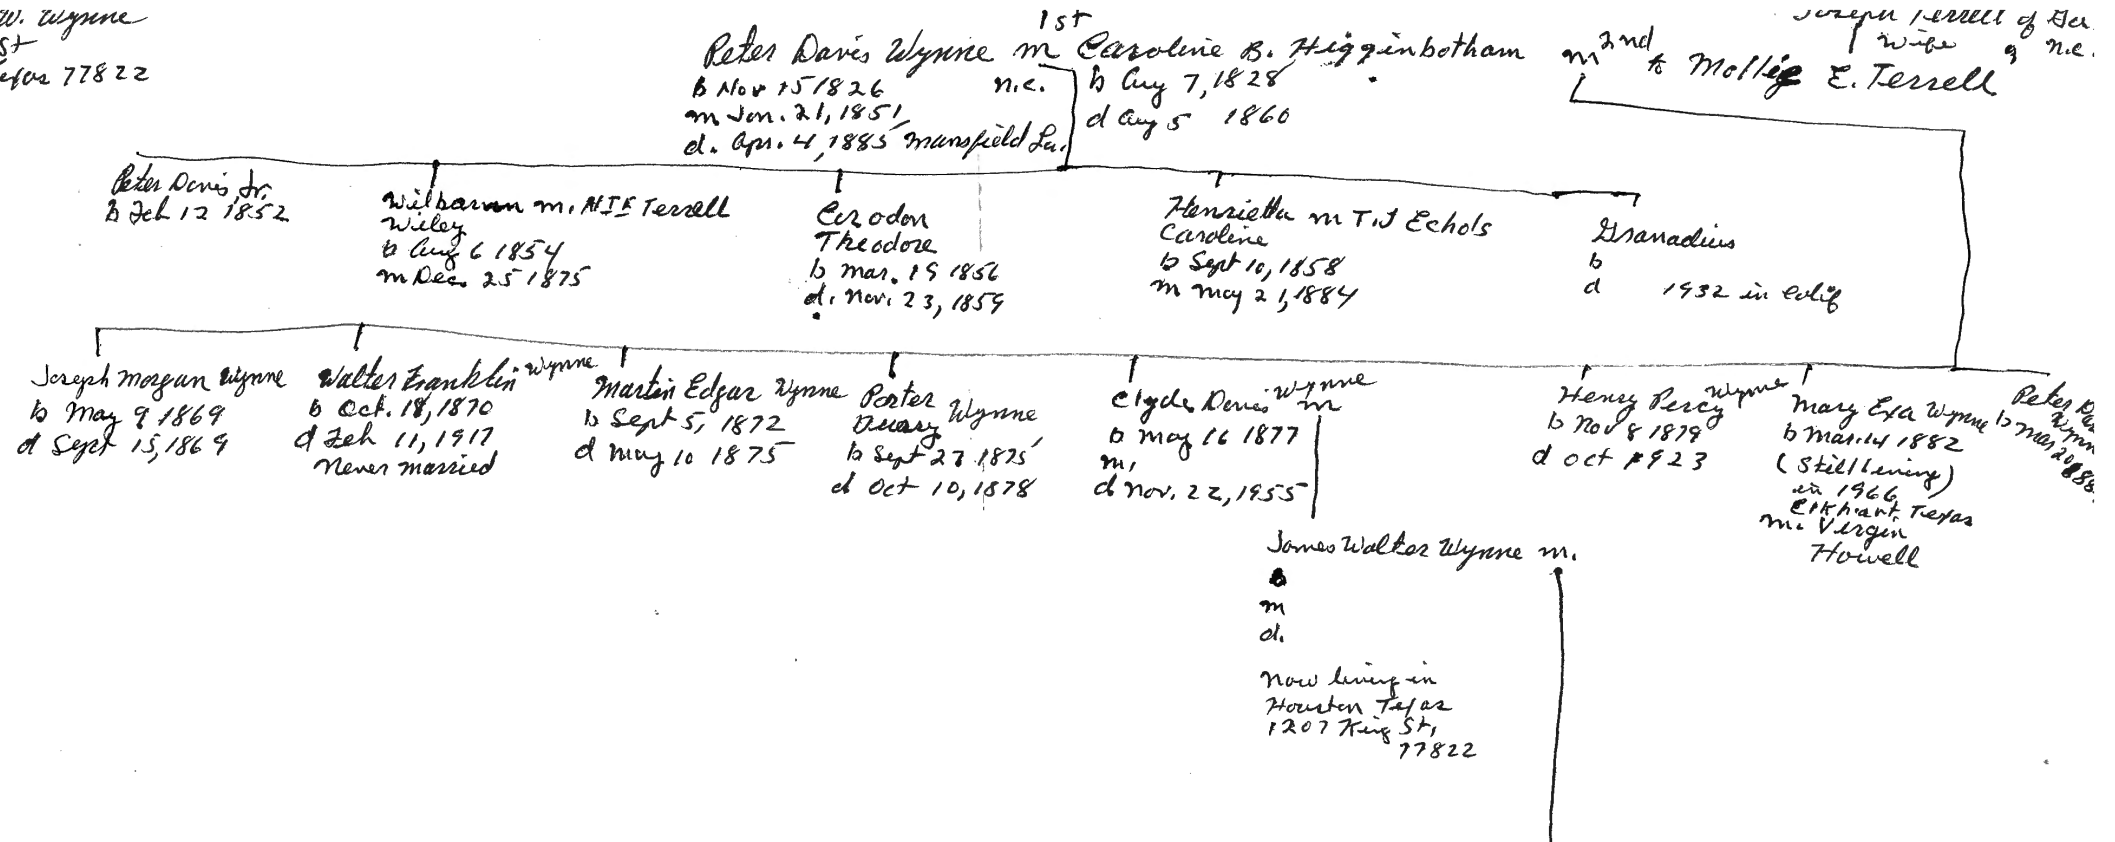

Mrs. J. W. Wynne, 1207 King Street, Houston, Tex. 77022, would like to contact any WYNNE descendants or anyone with records of WYNNE in Tenn. and La. She said her PETER D. WYNNE was born Nov. 15, 1826, died April 4, 1885, married first CAROLINE B. HIGGENBOTHAM on Jan. 21, 1851, and second MARY E. TERRELL on Feb. 20, 1868. The 1880 census of DeSoto Parish, La. shows PETER D. WYNNE and his parents (who were they?) as born in N. C. Children of PETER D. WYNNE were: PETER DAVIS WYNNE, born Feb. 12, 1852; WILBOURN WILEY WYNNE, born Aug. 6, 1854, married NANNIE TERRELL; CORODON THEODORE WYNN, born March 10, 1856, died Nov. 23, 1859; HENRIETTA CAROLINE WYNNE, born Sept. 10, 1858, married 1884 to T. J. ECHOLS; GRANADIUS (?) WYNNE, died about 1932 in Calif.; JOSIAH MORGAN WYNNE, born ~~May~~ May 9, 1869, died Sept. 15, 1869; WALTER FRANKLIN WYNNE, born Oct. 18, 1870, died Feb. 11, 1917; MARTIN EDGAR WYNN, born Sept. 5, 1872, died May 10, 1875; PORTER (DRUARY?) WYNNE, born Sept. 27, 1875, died Oct. 10, 1878; CLYDE DAVIS WYNNE, born May 16, 1877, died Nov. 22, 1955; HENRY PERCY WYNNE, born Nov. 8, 1879, died Oct. 1923; MARY EXA WYNNE, born March 14, 1882, and PETER DAVIS WYNNE, born March 20, 1884. PETER D. WYNNE, died 1895, was buried near Mansfield, La., and his wife moved to Texas. A descendant said most of his WYNNE relatives lived at Lucy and Memphis, Tenn., and she recalls cousins LUTHER WYNNE and HENRY WYNNE and also a brother to PETER D. named JOE, who were parents of PETER D. WYNNE? Were PRISCILLA, BENJAMIN L., REBECCA, JUDSON and JOE (GEORGE WASHINGTON) brothers and sisters of PETER D. WYNNE?

Dear Mr. Landrum;

Received your letter yesterday, and as I plan to send it on to Harry Landrum in Memphis I want to answer before I mail it. If Harry isn't interested now, maybe he will be interested when he finds out you have Landrum information.

Yes, I wrote both people and they answered, but like you neither knew any thing about Mournin Wynn + husband John Hicks. Found the marriage of Mournin Hix Hicks + James Kidd.

See, James Grant - wit. Wm Peter

From Halifax co., Va - 1786. I feel like she was the daughter or granddaughter of the above John + Mournin Hix. Not sure but I believe the father of Mournin Hicks died in 1779. I believe the grandfather of my 10 Hixes, so far 2 sons + 8 daus. would have died before them. However Mournin (Wynn) Hix was married in 1757.

So far we have found these names in my Hix family: Wm, John - my line, Jerusha, Barshaba ~~Lahra~~ Lahra, Annfilida, Maccilda (Maccela?) Judith, Alice or Ellis and Michael. I know you have a Jerusha in your Wynn family at a later date.

Here are the people these brothers & sisters married as far as we know.

1. William ? - The only sibling living in 1884 when Laura died. Therefore his children are not listed as hers.
2. John married Libella ?
3. Jerusha ? maybe Hix - maybe Massey - from a deed she had 3 children - one was Rebecca Rebecca - had 1 son D. Marcus Johnson.
4. Karskha married Richard Grinstead.
5. Laura m. Joshua Morris - very wealthy man.
6. Amphilida m. Charles West or Webb. Both names from
7. Marcella - m. Nathan Beady (Reddy)
8. Judith m. Jesse Rice
9. Alice or Ellis m. James Rice
10. Mildred m. ? McHoney - maybe <sup>or</sup> Cornelius McHoney just wonder if you have any of these odd names in your Wynn family?

I haven't given up completely on your John & Mournig Hix being my ancestor but the others do not think they are.

If you ever find anything please write me.

Sincerely yours,
Anne G. Hobbs.

Dear Mr. Landrum:

Your letter with regard to the WYNN FAMILY AND KINSMEN ASSN. arrived during our absence from the city on vacation.

I am sorry that I cannot contribute much information about my husband's WINN ancestry for your proposed book. I have not been working on this line for very long and to date know only:

MARTISHA WINN - b ca 1740, probably Prince George Co., Va.,
d/o Daniel Winn, d after 1790 in Lunenburg or Amelia Co., m 1st, ca 1759 in Lunenburg Co., Cornelius Greshaw
m 2nd, 18 Dec 1787, James Jennings.

Proof of her parentage is given in Lunenburg Co. DB 6:404:
6 Apr 1761 - DANIEL WYN (WINN) of Lunenburg Co., for natural love and affection which he bears for his daughter Martishi (sic), the wife of Cornelius Greshaw (Greshaw), deeds to the said Greshaw (sic) a negro gall named Samander and her increase. (quoted from Edward Pleasant Valentine Papers, p. 380)

My husband is a descendant of the first marriage - to Cornelius Greshaw.

The will of Daniel Winn - Lunenburg Co. WB 4:244, written in 1789, mentions only his son Joseph, stating that he has previously provided for his other children.

Lunenburg Co. DB 10:148 (1765) Daniel Winn gives land to his "son, Thomas Winn."
Lunenburg Co. DB 12:623 (1776) Daniel Winn gives land to his "son, Alexander Winn."

Presumably these were Martisha's brothers, but I have no other proof. There was also a Daniel Winn involved in 1802 and 1805 in Lunenburg Co. deed transactions, who could have been a brother, but as yet no proof.

I am still researching the family. If I can be of any assistance to you in compiling your book, please let me know.

Most sincerely,

Dear Mr. Landrum:

Thank you for your letters of April 17 and April 26 with the information they contain relative to my husband's Wynn ancestry. Do the records you quoted have documentary proof?

Although the information in your letter of April 26 has no connection with my husband's ancestry it is exceedingly interesting because all three names - Wynn, Brown, and Neisz - figure in his family. (One of his maternal grandmothers was Nancy Elizabeth Brown, d/o Eli Brown of Winton, N. Car.) Homer's grandfather, Gabriel Neisz, came to this country about 1845 with his sister Clara. Later his father Joseph Neisz and two brothers came over. The father and one brother returned to Alsace-Lorraine and the other brother remained, settling in Pennsylvania where the sister had married a man named Beiter. I do not know the names of the two brothers but it might be possible that the John Fredrick Neisz mentioned in your letter could be a son of the one who remained in Pennsylvania. It would be interesting to check.

Since writing to you last I have gone through the microfilmed Deed Books 10-20 (1764-1806) of Lunenburg Co., Va. and have made notations of a number of deeds for various Winns - Alexander, William, Orsamus, Elisha, Thomas, Joseph, Daniel, Christopher, Edmund, Francis, Griffin, Horatio, James, John, Littlebury, Minor, Peter, Richard, Robert and Samuel. I also have a copy of the will of Daniel Winn probated in Feb. Ct. 1799 (Lunenburg Co. WB 4:244) and of Joseph Winn probated June Ct. 1800 (Lunenburg Co. WB 5:20) Are you interested in having information of this sort? Although my deed notations contain only the essential information - book, page, date, grantor, grantee, acreage, consideration, general location of land, and witnesses - the number of pages of data is so numerous that I do not want to copy and send it unless I know you want it.

Enclosed is my check and application for membership in your Wynne Family and Kinsmen Association.

Sincerely,

Lillian Neisz

Dear Dr. Louis Rumb,

I received your letter of Oct. 4, 74. Am enclosing a M.O. for my dues for the coming year. When I received the By-Laws of the organization, I put them on to my dear friend, Cora Ann Wynn (lived in Calif.). She returned them and said that she would have been interested had she been younger but she is in poor health and has Cataracts and is nearly 71.

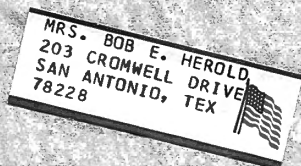

In 1968, she sent me 19 pages hand-written on legal size paper with all the records & descents on our Wynn family. I will have to receive her permission before I can pass this on to you. But I have enclosed a rough Resume and hope that it will be cleared for you. By Cora Ann Wynn who is son of Donald & is cleared with DAR.

She has a very extensive library on Virginia & I accept her word as she has stated. In checking her dates in the Dyer - the dates of the Maryland Thomas do not fit and it is Thomas, Jr. as she has stated.

She seemed to think but not knowing yours that you probably come through John Wynn's line Do you?

Just get this in the mail

Best wishes

VERYL & GARNET

All types of beryls and garnets work well together. These are much harder materials and will take longer runs.

PERIDOT

Peridot should be run by itself.

TOURMALINE

Tourmaline does better by itself. Small quantities of garnet can be run with tourmaline.

TURQUOISE

Turquoise and materials of the same hardness can be run together. Requires burnishing.

GLASS

Glass should be run by itself. Glass is soft and grinds fast.

Richard Stone, Jr., bro. of our Ann Stone &
Mirtha's & Katherine's mother Stone &
Thomas Stone, their bro. also m. sisters of Dorcas Winn - Malinda & Jincy.

John Winn, their father, was either brother or 1st cousin to our Daniel Winn
Richard Stone, Jr. died & his wife Jincy m.
Alexander Winn (his 2nd wife, too) brother of our Osmond Winn.

Corinne, Nona & I were the only ones of 6 "Cousins" who didn't come through the Wicks line, though Kettner had plenty of Cousins, named Wicks on Dorcas's side as well as Kettner's.

Nona's Winn's branched off into the Townsend line - Cousins of Stone descent also.

Frances Ann Jeter Winn was 18 yrs older than my Eliza B. & there was an extra generation than Corinne & I didn't have in our Winn line.

After the material and carrying agent have been placed in the cleaned drum, add your polish. Use polish in the proportion of 1 to 2 pounds to each 50-lbs. of material. (Too much polish will slow down the action.) Again, barely cover the material and charge with water and seal the drum. If your material was properly selected and prepared and then run long enough in the coarse and fine grind, you will be able to observe results within a day or two. From the second day on you will notice improvement daily. This run will finish the baroques and bring out the highest possible polish.

It is impossible to give a definite time limit for the polish as various types of materials require different lengths of time for a complete job. The average time on average materials is 100 hours. This can not be a fixed rule as some materials require weeks for the best polish. Keep the load in the polish until the desired results have been obtained.

POLISHING AGENTS

There are so many opinions on polishing agents that it is impossible to obtain a consensus. To try and solve this question, we are listing all known polishes and compounds that were used in this survey. One user swears by one and the next operator says that he does not use this agent as he could not obtain results. Polishes that were found to be in actual use: STANOKITE, LEVIGATED ALUMINUM, CERIUM OXIDE, TIN OXIDE, TRIPOLI. Almost every user had a special combination and all of them were in different proportions. Each was compounded after many experiments, to his own liking

HELPFUL HINTS

Experience has shown that many materials will do much better if they are processed by themselves, or mixtures of the same types. The main varieties are listed for your convenience.

AGATES & JASPEERS

All Agates and Jaspers	Agatized and Jasperized woods
This group covers most materials that are found on field trips.

TRANSPARENT QUARTZ GROUP

Amethyst	Rose Quartz
Citrine	Rutilated Quartz
Clear Quartz	Tourmaline in Quartz

OBESIDIAN

Obsidian should be run by itself. Various types can be run together. Mixing with harder materials will slow down the operation.

Wm. Wynn of Sussex Co. m. Nancy Packham
desc. of Robert Wynn of Charles City, Va through his son Joshua
This line worked out in detail in ★ "Va. Historical Genealogies" by John Bennett Zoffie back to the 1400's.

Robert's son Thomas — our ancestor (VWH + CWP) his land in Charles City Co. was free in Prince George when the original plan
(Charles City) was divided
Thomas Wynn, Sr. had a son Thomas, Jr.
whose land was & remained in Prince George Co.
where his son Daniel was born & reared & married & lived until 1752 or 54
when he bought land in Lunenburg Co & moved his chr. & wife there.
none of Thomas' records left — all burned up a few records found in Aug Crat.
Thomas m. Sarah & moved to Lunenburg &
Samuel of Lunenburg ~~Branswick~~ Brunswick Co.
Daniel were brothers, all sons of Thomas, Jr.

oldest son - Thomas Wynn
Though the record of his descendants is very sparse - this Thomas seems most likely to have been the ancestor of Daniel Wynn, our direct ancestor on this line
In 1757, Daniel bought land in Lunenburg Co.
from a Samuel Wynn of Brunswick Co. VA.
Originally a part of the vast Lunenburg area.
This deed, of sale mentioned that Daniel was a resident of Plence Group Co.
In 1754, Daniel bought more land & his residence at that time was given as "of Lunenburg Co. VA"

* Joshua Wynn youngest son of Daniel left a clear record of his children & their descendants which Mr. Boddie has gathered & recorded in great detail. This record definitely includes the descent of Daniel through this line. The only other son, Robert, Jr., seems to have died leaving no family. So - Thomas, elder brother of Joshua has to be our ancestor. (CWP)

The Will of Thomas Wynn, son of Robert Sr.
was made 8 Feb. 1766/17 - Probated 21 May 1718

He names 4 children:

- 1 - Thomas Wynn, Jr.
- 2 - Lucy Wynn
- 3 - Mary Wynn
- 4 - Robert Wynn

m. Mary (?) mentioned in his will Thomas Wynn, Jr. his brother and his own 6 daughters

- 1 - Lucetta Wynn Tucker
- 2 - Angela Wynn m. twice { Wm. Raines

- 3 - Martha Wynn Tachon
- 4 - Cornelia Wynn m. Jefferson Raines

has this to say

"When prima Facie proof is known to have been destroyed & therefore unavailable, substantial, circumstantial & secondary type evidence is both legally & genealogically admissible and acceptable."

C.W.P. "Having eliminated through exhaustive tracing of descendants, with proper records of sons and daughters, grand sons, etc. of Robert Wynn, the first of Charles City Co., we must conclude that Thomas Wynn, Jr., son of Thomas Sr., son of Robert Wynn, was of a branch apart from the properly established descendants of record & no record of him is available due to destruction of records."

→ Los Angeles Library - "Lost Records of the found in London Archives" which are authentic, legal, & certainly circumstantial enough as to take names, places to point to a likely line of descent for Daniel Wynn, our known ancestor.

TWIGS and TREES -- Lucille Stewart Kirsch -- San Antonio Light, 26 Dec. 1954

THE WYNNE FAMILY resided in Canterbury, England for three centuries before coming to Virginia. JOHN WYNNE was member of parliament from Canterbury. ROBERT WYNNE, mayor of Canterbury, was the grandfather of COL. ROBERT WYNNE, speaker of the house of burgesses in Va. during the Long Parliament 1661-74. COL. WYNNE was speaker longer than any other one man in Virginia's history.

Records show that ROBERT WYNNE was a justice in Charles City, County Court, Oct. 3, 1656. He was evidently captain of militia as he is referred to as "CAPT. ROBERT WYNNE". He died in 1675. Because he owned property in England, his will was probated there. His wife was Mrs. Poythress, widow. In his will, he mentions his "son-in-law", Frances Poythress". In those days, "son-in-law" meant "step-son". His will mentions eldest son, THOMAS WYNNE, youngest son, JOSEPH WYNNE and daughter WOODLIEF.

THOMAS WYNNE "eldest son" was born in 1657. In 1707 he and his wife, AGNES, deeded land in Surry to son, ROBERT and his daughter, MARY MALONE.

In 1703, the Meherrin Indians asked that THOMAS WYNNE be appointed their interpreter in the place of Thomas Blunt. He was so appointed to those tribes and also to the Nansenond's, saving for the Indians, lands around Pear swamp and other places belonging to them.

THOMAS WYNNE made his will in Surry Co., Va. in 1716 or 1717. His children were: THOMAS, LUCY, AND MARY who married Nathaniel Malone.; ROBERT WYNNE, justice, coroner, sheriff 1716, major of militia in Surry; died in Sussex July 23, 1754.

ROBERT L. LANDRUM, JR.
COLLECTION

Dear Mr. Landrum:

I recently ran across some photo copies of pictures on my Wynn line. I have been searching for a picture of Zeally my great, great grandfather but have to date been unable to find one, so will start with my great, great grandfather William Morgan Wynn.

under separate cover

This first sheet is William, his wife Mary Compton and William at the the age of about 47.

I am leaving for a two week trip to Texas to visit some kinsmen also on Zeally's side, so will be able to give a little more information upon my return home.

The second sheet I will send when I return from Texas and will include the four children of William at an early age. When the sheet arrives on Harmon, it will include all of Harmon's family.

The way things are going, it looks like Zeally's father may be Harmon Wynn, but will try and tie this connection while I am in Texas.

I can also send tombstone pictures if you would like them. My mother interested me in the hobby of Adam chasing, as I call it, about three years ago. Ironically, I have discovered that the great, great grandparents many times included the maiden name of a mother when naming their children so I feel that the name Zealy or Zeally is one of these, since the name is unusual. I have also found they were great on naming their children after presidents, generals if the child was born during a war.

I only regret that I can not spend more time on this hobby.

I would have liked to have been able to visit you, as my husband and I served our two weeks active duty with the Naval Reserve two years ago at Gulfport, Mississippi at the CBE base, and visited New Orleans on the weekend we were free.

I would like to mention also that Zeally's 1st son Andrew was born in Alabama, you follow their trails through the birth of their children. From Virginia, possibly Pittsivania - to Alabama, Tennessee, Missouri, Arkansas to Calif.

If the pamphlet is not published prior to May 19, 1971, I would like to include my first grand child, this is the anticipated date of arrival

Sincerely,

Wynne

Dear Mr. Landrum:

I found two Lyddel Estes. One was born 1775 the ninth child of Benjamin Estes and Frances Bacon. He married in 1805 Sarah Alston. It appears he could have had a wife prior to this. The other Lyddel I found in the 1790 NC census at Stokes County. I don't know who he is. That is all I have at the moment...still looking.

Yours,

Mr. Robert L. Landrum, II, President
The Wynne Family and Kinsmen Association
6416 Pontchartrain Boulevard
New Orleans, Louisiana 70124

Dear Mr. Landrum:

Received your note upon my return from Texas, I call it travels through Texas with Wynne, and am still trying to get the sand out of my system. I photocopied anything I could get my hands on which even mentioned Winn, Wynn, Wynne. Most of the information was picked up on a visit to the State Library, Austin, Texas. One could spend a month there, also visited the Land Grant office. We were fortunate in that they said we could check out books at the Library as long as they were returned by noon on Monday, so Friday we loaded up, if we had known they would do this we would have taken a trailer. Will get all the information assembled and will put on sheets I have ordered or will photo copy and send on to you.

I am enclosing 10.00 for two great granddaughters of Zealy Wynn who are living in Texas:

Mrs. Warren McNutt
3001 Fordham
Lubbock, Texas 79415

Miss Afton Wynn
3408 Owen Ave.
Austin, Texas 78705

The above were my reason for going to Texas as this was our first meeting though we had corresponded for the last three years.

Briefly I will give you a rundown on Zealy Wynn:

- * Zealy Wynn (spelled in 1830 census in Missouri as Zealy Wynne; in 1840 b. 1850 census Zeally M. Winn, (Ark); 1850 Zealy M. Wynn, (Ark) Va. married _____ Estes, daughter of Andrew Estes; also found a James Zealy list in North Carolina about 1790.

Children:

b. Ala	Andrew	b. 1826
b. Tenn	* William Morgan	b. 1828
b. Mo	James Preston	b. 1832
b. Mo	Minerva	b. 1834
b. Mo	Polly	b. 1837
b. Ark	Martin	b. 1841
b. Ark	Martha	b. 1843
b. Ark	Josiah	b. 1844
b. Ark	Susanna	b. 1846
b. Ark	Zachary Taylor	b. 1847

believe 1 child and wife of Andrew, William & James died in Mo. (the above death of wife is just a guess as the 1850 census showed no wife, and cousins in Texas said Zealy had remarried.

William Morgan Wynn, born Tenn. 1828 m. Mary Compton

While in Texas a book I picked up had a paragraph which mentioned families naming the first two sons after the great grandfathers or grandfathers and usually the daughters after the great grandmothers. It's rather interesting following their trails. My mother said they came from Pittsylvania County, Va, but can't seem to locate a census for this County....do the following surnames mean anything to you... Dodson, Estes, Gibson.

Will send formal sheets on the above with the pictures....Mother also mentioned my aunt saying Zealy had 3 brothers named William, Harmon, George W. but I find in the 1850 census next to Zealy a man named Josiah which looks like more of a brother:

b. 1798	Josiah Wynn	b. Va	married Carolina Wynn	b. Ky	1813
	Eliza	b. 1831	Ark.
	Ailsy	b. 1837	"

	Caroline	b. 1843	"
	George W.	b. 1844	"
	Sarah	b. 1846	"
	Margaret	b. 1847	"
	Harmon	b. 1848	"

Would appreciate any suggestions you might have...

Sincerely,

Wynne

COLLECTION

Dear Mr. Landrum:

I am a descendant of the Wynnes, that went to Georgia, from Virginia around 1800. Most likely before your Wynne ancestors moved there, but probably they were related.

I answered Mrs. Threatts inquiry on her Wynne family, in hopes that we might be of some help to one, or the other. So far I think that we have both failed, as she has so little to go now, maybe something will turn up as we go along.

Mrs. Threatt was so kind as to send me your name, address, and information on what you had sent her, pertaining to your Wynne clan. I am very much impressed on the fact that you have your family Bible Records for I feel that there couldn't be any records more concrete than those are. You are very fortunate to have them. I understand that you offered to make a copy of your Bible Records for Mrs. Threatt. I will be very grateful if you will make a set for me also.

I am not one to claim relation to every one by the same name, but I notice that you have the name (Williamson) Williamson is a family name, and not a given name, like Tom, Dick, or Harry. I have Williamson in my family too. Do you know if a Williamson married into your Wynne family, if so when, and where.

In my family is a Robert Augustus. You have a Robert Augustus also. Robert is a name that is used many times in the Wynne family, but finding the name Robert Augustus in both of our families, might lead to a connection. Do you know where the name Augustus came from, is it used often in your family? Do you have a Joshua, or a Clement in your family? I believe that Clement was a family name. Was there any Clements that married into your family?

My daughter, Wilhelmina, flew to Atlanta, Georgia on October 9, from there she flew to Jacksonville, Florida to visit relatives, and then went to Ocala, Silver Springs, and St Augustine, then flew up to South Carolina to visit relatives there, and now she is visiting her kin in North Carolina, and about the 25th. of October she will fly to New Orleans for a few days before returning here. Of course she will be trying to get what information that she can on the family. I gave her your name and told her that she might call you.

I will be looking forward to hearing from you real soon, and if I can be of any help to you, I will be glad to do so.

Sincerely,

Wilhelmina Smith

P.S.: As to when Joshua Wynne, Sr. died.... I rather question his date of death of 1715.

Reason: Will of widow Margaret (Woods) Jones Cocke, widow of Thomas Cocke, Sr., who left Will in 1696/97 Henrico Co., left Will written about 1708.

I am at the present time reviewing a microfilm at the Mormon Library in Tacoma of Henrico Co., Deeds-Wills 1677 - 1697, when William Randolph, Sr. was the Clerk.

This William Randolph is listed in the Will of Henry Isham, Jr., about 1677 as his brother-in-law. William Randolph's first wife was Mary Isham. She is listed in the Will of her mother Katherine (Banks) Royall Isham about 1687. This Widow Katherine Isham also lists her grand daughter Sarah Perrin (my ancestor) Sarah Perrin's mother was Katherine Royall, who was a half sister to Mary Isham Randolph.

<sup>2nd</sup>
William Randolph's wife was the widow of Joshua Wynne, Sr. or Mary (Jones) Wynne Randolph. If I remember correctly, widow Margaret (Woods) Jones Cocke's Will was dated about 1708, and lists her sons Abraham Jones, Peter Jones, and grand children Jones, <sup>four or</sup> five grand children of her daughter Mary and her first marriage to Joshua, Sr.... as Joshua, Robert, William, and I believe Peter and Frances. (Frances might have been dead by then... I am not certain). She definately lists her daughter Mary... as Mary Randolph, wife of William Randolph and grandson William Randolph, Jr.

October 16, 1972

Dear Mr. Landrum II:

Enclosed herewith is a check for ... $5.00 and the application for membership in the Wynne Family Association filled out.

Shall try to outline my Wynne Problem:

Since there were dozens of John Coxes in Virginia at the same time, the John Cox of Bluestone Creek, Mecklenburg with wife Lucrey was my ancestor. Have noted they sold land in Prince Edward Co., Va., and in Brunswick Co., they sold land jointly with Thomas Williams as follows:

Brunswick Co., Va., Order Book #3, 1745-1749: Page 4. Between Thomas Williams and Rachel, his wife, and John Cox and Lucretia, his wife, Part one, and John Evans other Part. Acknowledged by John Cox and Lucretia his wife and ordered recorded 1745.

What was maiden name of ... Rachel, wife of this Thomas Williams?

Land Grant in Land Book 35, page 576.... To John Cox - 1545 acres on both sides of Bluestone Creek in County of Lunenburg - Beginning at Stith's Corner to Hogan's Road... to trace of land formerly granted to Thomas Williams... to oak on Wolf Branch, thence down branch, as it meanders, to Bluestone Creek, then down creek to the beginning... 435 acres formerly granted to Thomas Williams. by patent, dated May 20, 1749, and 1110 acres never before granted, August 4, 1764.

Signed: Francis Fauquier... Governor.

John Riley Malone whose ancestor was Nathaniel Malone who married Mary Wynne, daughter of Capt. Thomas Wynne, Sr., (1657, d. 1718) Virginia. has several items in his records concerning a Thomas Williams, apparently the same as above.

What was the relation of this Thomas Williams with the ... Bolling... Wynne... Malone Families?

John Cox and wife Lucrey had a son... Bolling Cox, listed in Tax Record of Mecklenburg Co., in 1764, and was given deed of Gift July 13, 1767, in Deed Book 1, page 435. Bolling Cox left Will in Mecklenburg Co., Va., in Will Book 1, page 257, dated Feb. 27, 1776, probated 4-13-1778, listing his brothers, Thomas and Samuel Cox, and sisters, Mary Hall, Lucrey Cox and Martha Cox.

Cox

This John/ left Will in Mecklenburg Co., in Will Book 3, page 200, dated April 16, 1791, probated Jan. 13, 1794, that was witnessed by Thomas Wilson, Nicholas Mealer, Jr., and William Hall..... on motion Samuel Cox, one of the executors therein named, who made oath thereto and together with Richard Winn (Wynne) and Peter Bailey, his securities entered into and acknowledged their bonds in the penalty of one thousand pounds on condition as the law directs..."

This Peter Bailey was a brother of Temperance Bailey Cox, wife of Samuel Cox. Peter Bailey and Temperance Bailey Cox were children of Roger Cocke Bailey who lived in Charlotte Co., Va., 1777 through 1784 on Bluestone Creek, and this Roger Cocke Bailey was a son of Abraham Bailey, Jr., and wife Temperance Cocke of Henrico Co., Va.

Who this this Richard Winn (Wynne) who went security with Peter Bailey for Samuel Cox?

Who was the following Samuel Wynne in Lunenburg Co.?

Lunenburg Co., Deed. Book 1, page 71: Between Samuel Wynne (Winn) of Brunswick Co., and Thomas Wynne of Parish of St. Paul, Hanover Co., 55 lbs.
Wit: John Winn, Richard Moses, John Stone. Signed: Samuel (X) Winn.

Lunenburg Co., D.B. 1, page 86: Samuel Wynne to Ralph Hunt 80 lbs.
June 14, 1746. Tract of land on North Side of Flushing Creek 105 acres by Patent 1743. Wit: Stephen Wade, Robert Wade. Signed: Samuel (X) Winne

Who were the parents of this Samuel Wynne? Could this Samuel Wynne have been a son of Anne Bolling b. 1690 and married a Mr. Wynne, who might have been Thomas Wynne, Jr.

Order Book 1714 - 1720: Prince George Co., page 202: John and Robert Bolling exhibited in Court a Bond from Thomas Wynne, deceased, to them, the said Bollings and made oath thereto and ordered it be certified thereunto.

Could this Thomas Wynne have been the husband of their sister.... Anne Bolling Wynne?

Lunenburg Co., Order Book 1, 1746-1748, p. 331: Petition of Drury Allen, against Samuel Wynne. Petition of Samuel Wynne against James Jordan for debt.

Lunenburg Co. Deed Book 3, page 140: Between Samuel Wynne of Lunenburg Co., and John Craddock of Amelia Co. 200 acres in Lunenburg Co. on North Branch of Meherrin River. Wit: James Gordon, Wm. Petty, Charlie Bushes. Dec. 2, 1757.
Signed: Samuel (X) Wynne

Who was this Samuel Wynne?

Land Patent Book #8, p. 344: Thomas Winn (Wynne), 659 acres on Black water, April 15, 1690, p. 55 adj. John Wallace, deceased; Hercules Flood; Major Fra. Poythris, deceased, on the Great Swamp, to mouth of Bland's Branch, to land of John Williams, deceased importation of 14 persons, including Abraham Wood, Robert Hill, James Isham, Robert Wood. Could Thomas Williams, wife Rachel, have been a son of above... John Williams, deceased?
This was Thomas Wynne, Sr. who had wife Agnes, and left sons.. Thomas Wynne, Jr., and Robert Wynne. and daughter Mary Wynne who m. Nathaniel Malone.

All three of these children, Robert, Thomas and Mary Wynne Malone must have been born between about 1675 and 1682, as, if I remember correctly John Riley Malone wrote that his ancestor Mary Wynne Malone was married about 1700 or before.

Surry Co., Deed Book 1715-1730, page 609: Between Robert Wynne of Surry Co., 5 shillings by Thomas Wynne, his Administrator... 100 acres on the North Side of Stoney Creek of Surry Co., October 20, 1735. Signed: Robert Wynne.
Wit: William Gray, Jr., Jos. Nicholson, Edward Hill.

You agreed that this was the 100 acres left in Will of Thomas Wynne, Sr. to his son Thomas Wynne, Jr. and thus this Thomas Wynne, Jr., was deceased prior to 1735.
Sussex Co.

Robert Wynne who left Will in Will Book A, 1754-1764, page 14, states that his brother Thomas Wynne was to be his Administrator.

Since Thomas Wynne, Jr., died prior to 1735, how could he administer the Will of Robert Wynne who had wife Mary Bell?

This has puzzled me very much.

O.K. about the name being Sloman and not... Stoman. I copied this from microfilm, and the old writing of "l" looked like uncrossed "t".

(over) I am trying to identify the Mr. Wynne or Thomas Wynne who was the husband of Anne Bolling and where they lived.

Sincerely, Barbara Reichlein

P.S.: Of the two sons of Thomas Wynne, Sr. and wife Agnes,..... Robert Wynne and Thomas Wynne, Jr.
The item in Surry Co., D.B. 1715-1730, page 609, would indicate that it was son Robert Wynne who Administered and sold his brother Thomas Wynne, Jr., 100 acres left him on Stony Creek by his father Thomas Wynne. ed Then it was not possible that Thomas Wynne, Jr. ~~is~~ Administer/ the Will of Robert Wynne in Will Book A, in Sussex Co., 1754-1764, who had wife Mary Bell, as the Thomas Wynne, brother of Robert, was already dead.

Dear Mr. Landrum:

Thank you for the information and application form for the Wynne association. My completed application is enclosed, with my dues of $5.00.

When I have completed gathering what information our branch of the family has, I will send you copies. In the meantime, can you tell me if our James Winn of Lunenburg County, Virginia, connects with any Winns you now have on file? We would be very interested in knowing more about these ancestors.

We moved from New Orleans about seven years ago, having lived there for seventeen years while my husband taught in the School of Engineering at Tulane University. I got interested in genealogy while there; and spent many hours in the Genealogy Room of the Howard Tilton Library on campus. I am sorry we didn't meet while we still lived there.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Landrum,

Thank you for your recent letters. That James Winn who married Betsy Powell is the farthest back we have been able to verify a Winn so far.

However, several years ago, in answer to an ad I had placed in the Genealogical Helper, a Mrs. W. T. Davis of Whittier, California, sent me information that this James Winn was the son of John and Susanna Winn. She listed their other children as Priscilla and John. And she also said that this John Winn, father of my James, was the son of Daniel Winn and Sarah, his wife. She gives the children of Daniel and Sarah as: Thomas, Martisha, John, Alexander, William, Elisha, Orasmus, Joseph, and Gillanus. Mrs. Davis sent me no references for any of this material, saying she had gotten it from a "Mrs. Pearce" who apparently has had extensive research done in the twelve years she had been working on her family.

Now, does this tie in with any information you have? I have not had the opportunity to try to follow up on any of this information.

I am waiting to hear from one of my aunts, returning "Family Record" sheets I sent her to be filled out. Is this the type of information you want for your records? And if so, in what form would you like this information sent to you?

Thank you for all you are doing to further the recording for future generations of the Wynne history.

Sincerely,

Mrs. J. H. Peebles, Jr.

21 October 1974

Dear Robert,

So pleased to receive your letter and glad to know I could help you a little - a little means so much some times.

I had been wanting to go to Farmerville and look at their records for some time now so will go the very first chance I get and will send you the information.

I will be sending you copies of my information from time to time as I have several families of Wynne-Winn not really directly in my line.

Am going to Shreveport one day this week to meet a lady from Virginia whose father was a Wynne of Virginia where she still lives. She says they were descended from Pleasant Wynne who was related to George Washington. I'll know after meeting her for I'll find out.

In Harrison Arkansas, I made contact accidentally with an attorney, Roger V. Logan, Jr., who is a descendant of the Sumner and Robertson County, Tenn. Wynn. His Wynne ancestor was Harriet Wynne who married a Logan.

I am in the process of making a rough outline of my ancestors and shall send it on to you in about a week. I'll have more later on as I fill in the gaps.

I am enclosing some various marriage records-complete ones from Claiborne Parish and from the old records of the others. May be they will fit in ~~every~~ <sup>Some</sup> where.

Many good days and much luck to you always.

Sincerely,

Mildred

P.S. Thank you so much for fixing the membership; I am enjoying this so very, very much. It is so fascinating.

Dear Mr. Landrum:

I was given your name by Mr. Allen Cabaniss of University, Miss. I think that at one time my son, Elmer Winn of Baton Rouge, La had a membership with you. I am badly in need of information in trying to research a line of Wynnes. If I need to, will you send me an application for membership.

I live in Wynne country. There are so many and the original family who came to Louisiana from Marion County, Tenn is so prolific. There were 13 Wynne children in the family that came to Louisiana--they had 10 step brothers and sisters and 3 half sisters. Four of the Wynne children married four of Beans (beene) that were steps.

The cemetery at Millerton, La (New Ramah), a Primitive Baptist is full of Wynnes and Beans.

Col Robert Wynne born 1622 in Canterbury, England came to Virginia in 1656. He evidently married Mary, widow of Francis Poythress and had Thomas, Robert, Joshua and Mary. Joshua married Mary Jones and had Peter, Joshua, Jr., Robert, William and Frances. Joshua was killed by the Indians. -----

There I have a gap to William Matthew Wynne, a surveyor in Marion County, Tenn. William Matthew Wynne had twin sons, Thomas and John, born 9 Oct 1800 in Tenn. Thomas Wynne married Nancy Sweeton and had 12 children. He died about 1840 in Tenn from rabies and Nancy Sweeton Wynne married Jesse Bean, a widower with 10 children. They finally wound up in Louisiana. One of their children Jones Wynn married his stepsister, Martha Beene. They had John Oliver Wynn who had Rube Winn, who had Elmer O Winn, Sr, who had Elmer O Winn, Jr. who has no children.

This is a brief outline only. Anyway that you might be able to help me would be much appreciated.

Sincerely,

Mr. Robert Landrum III

Dear Robert,

This is terrible but I cannot remember if I sent you this outline or not. If I did, disregard it, if not, then you have it.

The underlined are my descent.

I know that you are a Wynne descendant of Green Wynne and I've also been told that you do know the children of Thomas Wynne, Jr who went to Ga in the 1790's with his brother, Obediah Wynne, Sr. I can find Obediah's will-his wife and children, but nothing of Thomas Wynne, Jr. Did THOMAS WYNNE, JR leave Georgia and go some place else? I am puzzled. Can you help?

It is supposed to be a son of THOMAS WYNN, JR who is the father of my THOMAS WYNN-JOHN BERRY WYNN born 9 Oct 1800 in Georgia. I do know that ~~Thomas Wynne's eldest child~~, a sister of John B-Thomas Wynne, Sarah Wynne was born 1809 in Virginia. Did he go to Georgia, then back to Virginia, marry and go back to Georgia or come to Marion County, Tenn? Or was Sarah born before he went to Ga?

If you can help me with this, I would certainly appreciate it.

I have this to add: Taken from a letter of L. G. PLEASANTS, who was a certified genealogist for 40 years - a descendant of both Wynne and Malone that, and I quote:

"Genealogists always say that LUCRETIA always goes back to the Malone, Tucker or Wynne families. Tradition is that MALONES, TUCKERS, and WYNNES owned boats in partnership before Virginia was settled, and that the Moores, Tuckers and Malones were together in Bermuda before settling in Virginia."

Now, go back to page 1 of the outline I enclosed. THOMAS WYNNE, eldest son of Col Robert Wynne (b. 1622) married Agnes Tucker. One of his daus, LUCY (LUCRETIA) married Joseph TUCKER, and the other, MARY WYNNE married Nathaniel MALONE, as well as their father married Agnes TUCKER. Sounds true to me. Anyway it is possible.

I haven't found out anything about JOEL RICHARDSON WYNNE - found a Joel Tucker, son of Lucy Wynne-Joseph Tucker.

Have a HAPPY THANKSGIVING !

Sincerely,

Mildred S. Winn

Some time ago you registered the surname WYNNE with my index. I myself have a Wynne line and at this time am asking your assistance and in turn offering mine.

I suspect that the father of my great great great grandfathers Allen S. W. and Peter D. Wynne (their children married each other) was William Wynne, Sr. of Wake County, North Carolina from whence Allen and Peter came to Shelby County, Tennessee in 1845 and 1830 respectively. I have a family chart in my possession which goes back to Robert Wynne who came to America in the 1600's and there are several William Wynnes mentioned on the chart, any one of which may be my own William Wynne. Most of the Wynnes on this chart resided in Virginia.

Therefore, I am interested in obtaining any information on any William Wynne (Wynn, Winn, etc.) in the state of Virginia before 1800 at which time I know my William was in Wake County, North Carolina. In turn, I will be happy to check my extensive Wynne notes for your ancestors and advise you of any pertinent data I might find. My notes cover all of the southern states and Pennsylvania.

Your assistance will be most sincerely appreciated.

Yours very truly,

Joy Vann Truibel

Mrs. R. L. Wynne

Dear Mrs. Wynne:

Thanks so much for your letter of October 6 and the enclosed chart. Your letter came only a few days after I had written to a Mrs. R. L. Wynne in Fort Campbell, Kentucky who had registered the WYNNE surname with my National Surname Index and, since the registration was a year or so old in my file, I thought perhaps you and she might be one and the same and that this Mrs. Wynne had simply neglected to send a change of address to NSI upon moving to Houston. If this, in fact, was the case, I'm sure that our letters crossed in the mail and that the letter you received didn't make a bit of sense in reply to the one you sent me!

Judging from the chart you enclosed with your letter yours is the Wynne line with which I hope to connect. I am enclosing all I know about my Wynnes--one sheet shows my Wynne chart and one shows proven facts about my Wynnes and facts that I need proof of. My information regarding the William Wynnes, Sloman Wynne, and Joshua Wynnes comes from a Col. Robert Wynne chart which was evidently published in a book and it was sent to me by Mrs. J. W. Wynne of Houston.

Incidentally, I received a letter from Mrs. Wynne today and she was most complimentary of you and your genealogical knowledge and said that she enjoyed your meeting together so much. She spoke of your youth and your sharpness of mind. I will be 32 myself in a couple of weeks and find that very few of the persons with whom I am acquainted are as young as I and it even cramped my style a little with the older ladies of the local genealogical society for awhile, but I finally got used to being the "baby" and now feel as if I fit right into the group despite my being so much younger. I have enjoyed corresponding with Mrs. Wynne for a couple of years now and we have swapped a good bit of data back and forth. She seems to take nothing for granted in family research and was very skeptical when I told her that I was sure her Peter D. Wynne was the son of the Peter D. Wynne I found in the 1850 Shelby County, Tennessee census. I recently went down to the Shelby County court house and found the proof of this connection and sent it to her and I actually wonder if is convinced yet!

I have written to the Wake County, North Carolina Register of Deeds for proof that Peter D. Wynne is, as I suspect, brother of Allen W. S. Wynne and son also of William Wynne, Sr. of Wake County, but I have not as yet received an answer.

I have much Wynne data from various southern states and some from Pennsylvania but considering the extensive research you are bound to have done to arrive at the lineage on the chart you sent I doubt very seriously that any of my data would be new to you, however, if you think that it might I'd be happy to send Xerox copies of my notes or look for some specific persons in whom you are interested.

Please forgive me the shoddy typing job I've done on this letter--hope you can decipher it. It's time for me to cook supper but I did want to get the letter finished and off to you before you gave up on ever hearing from me!

Thanks again for writing. I'll be very happy to hear from you at any time.

Yours very truly,

Mrs. J. Edward Friebe

Dear Relative or Friend:

Do you have any knowledge concerning the above _____ family?

They are some of my ancestors. Are you related to them also? Do you have more information regarding them?

Possibly we could both benefit by an exchange of data on our progenitors and other relatives. Family tree research is one of the most interesting of all hobbies.

If we are related - will you help me? I would greatly appreciate knowing more regarding the above people - their ancestors, children, brothers, sisters, uncles, aunts, cousins, in-laws, etc. In exchange I'll be happy to give you what information I have and we'll both gain.

The chart on the other side of this sheet will assist you in recording what you know regarding your ancestors. Please fill in what you can - don't worry about research - just send what you know. If you need other sheets to send more regarding your family groups or ancestral lines I will be glad to send them to you. The enclosed stamped envelope will also help you send a reply. Even though you can see no visible connection between our ancestors, your answer will be most welcome and I'll check further to see if our lines connect. If you are acquainted with others who might help with more knowledge on this family, send their names and addresses also. A letter will be sent to ask their assistance.

Wouldn't it be wonderful if enough information could be gathered so a book could be published about our ancestors and relatives?

Thanks kindly for your cooperation and helping hand.

Sincerely,

Your own name should be written on line No. 1. Then follow through with as many ancestors as possible. If you do not have all the information, just fill in what you know - you are not expected to have all these facts right at your finger tips. Of course, the more you can give the better the record. Other sheets can be supplied to assist you if you have more information on your family groups and ancestors - just let us know.

Many thanks for helping in this search for progenitors and relatives. If you are not already a genealogy enthusiast you will find a new thrill in recording the beginning of your family tree.

Thomas Wynne who married Nancy Sweden (Sweden, Sweeten, Sweeting are corruptions of the family name Sweeton.) died in the 1840's leaving Nancy Wynne with eleven children. (Family tradition says the Nancy Wynne Cove is named for her.) Jesse Bean's first wife died, who was Naomi Pyburn, leaving him with eleven children. He married Nancy Sweden Wynne. Then they had three of their own. Four of the Bean children married four of their foster Wynne brothers and sisters. Time and space would fail us to give all the Wynne-Bean connections. The writer himself descends from James M. Bean, born in Pittsylvania Co., Virginia, who later moved to Jackson Co., Tennessee.

These attendant circumstances will serve to give some genealogist of the future grounds for research.

WYNN FAMILY

Jeremiah Wynn, m. Miss Pritchard. It is possible that some of this first information is not correct. Too much time has passed, and too little data is available. The Wynn family lived in the village of St. George, in Abernethy, Denbighshire, North Wales. Somewhere in the history of the family there was a Sir Thomas Wynn, who was hanged. Some of the children migrated to America, and some of them dropped the "E" from the name, due to various reasons.

1. John, 1807 (approx) m. Hannah, 1809 to 1889
2. Jeremiah, m. and had two daughters, one of whom married a man named Evans. Jeremiah and his wife lived in Liverpool.
3. Hannah, with her sister, Dinah, were older sisters, and much loved in the family. William named his youngest daughter after both of them. One of these girls married a man named Pritchard, whose son Phillip lived beyond Pont y Cyllud at Ty Isa. He had three daughters, all married. Another son lived at Newport, Neb.
4. Dinah, all the information on Hannah can apply to Dinah, also.
5. George, 1828 (approx.), m. Jane Jones
6. William, 1831 to 1884 m. Ann Jones, 1831 to 1887
7. Charlotte, 1836, m. Evan Jones, 1811
8. Sarah, 1837, m. David Jones, 1807, a brother of Evan Jones.

1. John, 1807, m. Hannah, 1809 to Feb. 12, 1889. John was the oldest son, but not necessarily the oldest child. He lived at Nant Bach, "Little Hollow" on a hill above St. George. His schooling was at Bodelwydd. He worked at Bryn Bryn, and was considered very strong. He is buried at the St. George cemetery. After John died, Hannah married Edward Lloyd, whom she taught to read and write. She was very active in the Calvinist Methodist Church. She is buried at Celm cemetery. Lloyd outlived her, dying Dec. 11, 1906.

1. Henry, 1842 to Nov. 1919, m. (a.) Jane Jones in Wales. Jane had a sister Mary, and brother John who remained in Wales. Henry and his brother John were not happy at home when their mother remarried, so came to the U.S.A. in 1873, leaving from Nant Mefod. Henry, as he was known, worked at Kimmel Palace. Henry was married three times, each time returning to Wales to marry a new wife. He died in the home of his brother at Oronoque, Kansas.

Dear Mrs. Wynne,

I have been trying to "do" the Wynne genealogy on my grandparents. I do not think you come from the same family, but it is worth a try. Perhaps you can give me some information.

My Wynnes came from Northern Wales before the Civil War. Several from the same family, but at different times, and settled in different places-- New York State, Illinois, Kansas, and Iowa. They were from St. George village in Abercrombie, Denbighshire.

While I have not found a Robert L. in my tree, there were relatives left in Wales, Robert being rather a familiar name.

Does any of this mean anything to you?

I found your name requesting information on other families, but not the Wynnes. I have joined a genealogy club here in Paradise, and the President had some books with various information in them-- hence your name.

I should have gotten interested in this twenty-five years ago when there were still some of the older generation around to help me.

So can you tell me where your Wynnes came from? I believe that spelling is the Welsh way.

Thank you so much for anything you can do.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Paul Chamberlin

Dear Bob,

I just got home from the dentist and the library so I'll write you this while I still have it straight.
In the Ohio Roster of officers in the Civil War there's one Wynn, one Huff and one Sandrum. Maybe the Wynn is one of yours
Turner M. Wynn.

Served at Chickamauga 9/26, 1863

That's all I have at the moment, but there are a few addresses I have to write to, and I plan on going to Ohio for a few days before I get down to New Orleans again.

New Orleans seems like a long way off at the moment. If I come down to like it will be between now and the end of June. I have several art shows to prepare for and when envelopes are done and I have a job done there I'll be forwarding on your app for help. So far I had no job lined up though I've written to several places.

The weather here is getting quite warm also. Not quite 80 but in the 60's that's quite a change from sub-zero weather.
So glad to hear <sup>you</sup> got to Jack even if it was only a short time.
The trip they planned was on short notice I gave him your address and told him to be sure and call, which he did several times.

Had you enjoyed your stay and it got to you alright.
Most of the picture you sent back with me. I have had Sanyou
The two that are enclosed are of Jim, Jack's brother and the other is Aunt Ann and her pop daughter Guth.

My mouth is so sore from the dentist this morning, I'm having my chipped tooth fixed, that I think I'd go to bed.

George Wynne, born about 1675, died 1751, in Bertie County, married Rose Bush, daughter of Martha and William Bush of Isle of Wight County, Virginia. (Grimes 58, 425) George Wynne bought land in Chowan County in 1718, and received a Lords Proprietors grant of four hundred acres in Bertie County N.C. in 1720. (Bk. C, p. 34). George Wynne (spelled Wynne, Wynn, Winn, Wynns) served on the Grand Jury (1719), Queen Ann's Creek, Justice of the Peace, Clerk of Court, Bertie Precinct (1719-21) under the Proprietary Governor (Col. Rec. pp 275-285). He is mentioned as Captain George Wynne in 1727; from 1731 to 1737 he represented Bertie County in the Colonial General Assembly (Id.)

Children as listed in his will:

- I. John, eldest son, m. (1) Mary Boone; (2) Sarah Van Pelt. (See later)
- II. Benjamin, m. (1) Catherine, daughter of Catherine Booth and Henry Baker, III. By this marriage there were sons:
1. George; 2. William. After the death of his first wife, he married Margaret, daughter of Pherebe Savage and Col. Francis Pugh. (History of Perquimans Co. by Winslow, p. 360) He was Colonel of the Hertford Regiment in 1775. (Ros. p. 502). Judge B. B. Winburne of Hertford County in his "History of the Wynne Family" states the following:
"In Benjamin Wynne's will he speaks of Sir Watkin Williams Wynne, who leased a family mansion on St. James Square for a number of years to Lord Stratmore. It was built many years prior for a much older Sir Watkin Williams Wynne who was spoken of as the Old Prince of Wales and who descended in an unbroken line from Rhodric Maur (Roderick the Great)". Hertford Co. wills having been destroyed by fire, there is no way to certify this will which was undoubtedly probated there, but it is believed that Judge Winburne wrote this article early in 1900 before the Court House burned.

Burke, in his "Peerage and Baronetage", 1938, (p. 2635) states as follows: "(WILLIAMS-WYNN) Sir William Williams, 2nd: Bart., M.P. This gentleman m. 1st. Jane, dau. and heiress of Edward Thelwall, of Plas-y-Ward, Co. Denbigh, by Sydney, his wife, dau. and heiress of William Wynn, son of Sir John Wynn, of Gwydir, Carnarvon, created a baronet 29 June 1611, derived from Roderick, Lord of Anglesey (2nd. son of the chivalrous Owen Gwynedd, Prince of North Wales), who was representative of Anarawd, King of North Wales, and sovereign paramount of all Wales, son (with his brothers, Cadelh, King of South Wales, and Mervyn, King of Powys) of Rhodri Mawr, or the Great King of Wales. By this illustrious alliance, Sir William Williams left three sons and two daughters. His son and heir was Sir Watkin Williams-Wynn, 3rd. Bart., M.P. for Denbigh, who succeeded to the seat of Wynnstay, and other estates, under the will of Sir John Wynn, Bart., and assumed in consequence, the additional surname and arms of Wynn."

It is evident that this family of Wynn of N. C. is related to Sir John Wynn of Gwydir.

John Van Pelt, who sailed a sloop from New York to N.C. in 1720, took up residence in Bertie County and died there in 1734. (From A History of the Wynn Family by Judge B. B. Winburne, 1917). Watkin William Wynne and his wife Ann were living in Bertie Co. from 1777 until in 1788 he purchased land in Martin Co., N.C. This land (800 acres) was purchased from Henry and Mary Robason and adjoined their own land. (Bk. since the Court House was burned in 1884 but one deed (Book I & J, p. 48) between Silas Bennett and John Congleton refers to the lines of Josiah Wynn, one of the sons of William Ward Wynn, deceased. A Bible belonging to the late Columbus M. Wynn of Pitt County gave the names of two sons born to William Ward Wynn and w. Sophronia. Children:

In 1828 he sold a tract of land in Martin County which corresponded in description to the land which was given to William Ward Wynn by his father, Watkin William Wynn, in 1803. In this deed he is called "Josiah Wynn of Pitt County" (Pitt Deed Book H, p. 286). To his various deeds in Pitt County, his name is signed inconsistently, sometimes being Joseph, sometimes Josiah. In the census of 1850, he is listed as Joseph and his wife as Etha L. He apparently died without a will and in her application for a dower his wife is called Ethelinda and he Joseph (Ref. -Pitt Co. D Book NN, p. 45). Jasper C. Wynn of Bethel, Pitt Co., N.C., is a living grandson of Josiah Joseph, he being the son of William Harmon Wynn, and wife, Alvania Briley, Pitt Co. Children:

Joseph John Charles Wynn, b. 1832, d. 1896, in Grindool, Pitt Co., N.C.; Oct. 26, 1859, m. Alvania Davenport, d. of Charles Davenport and his wife, Cinderella Taylor. Cinderella Taylor Davenport was the daughter of John Taylor of Edgecombe (d. March 21, 1823) and wife Ellen (Wills, Edgecombe by Griffin and Williams, p. 324). Joseph John Charles enlisted in the Confederate Army August 18, 1863, in Martin County, Co. H, 10th Reg. (Roster of N.C. Troops, Vol. II, p. 369). COLLECTION

Route 1, Box 192 E

23 September 1974

Mr. Robert L. Landrum II
P. O. Box 577
Orbita Springs, Louisiana 70420

Dear Mr. Landrum:

What a pleasure it was to talk with you yesterday morning!
May we have more pleasant conversations. It was so unexpected and that made it twice as nice.

I work on this particular Wynne history in my leisure time - it is the most fascinating hobby (fulltime) that I can imagine.

Mrs. S. D. Martin (a descendant in this Thomas Wynne born 1800 in Marion County, Tenn) is now working also on this line. I am trying to untangle some of them. Their predilection for using the same surnames makes it rather difficult. Anyway when we have it printed I shall send you a copy for your files. In the meantime I shall send you other information that may or may not be a repeat in your information but it shall be on other Wynnes that I run across that do not belong in our particular line.
With the exception of one son I have John Oliver Wynne line down including my children. I am going to Harrison, Arkansas soon to see if I can acquire additional information as to what his father had in the way of other children there. I know there was a girl.

I have inquired into the history of towns bearing the name Winn or Wynne. Wynne, Arkansas, Winnfield, La, etc.

Pardon me, but Mrs. S. D. Martin helped Mrs. Vera Looney in the preparation of her Beene-Bean-Wynne-Wynn genealogy. The Beene is much more complete than the Wynne. My line belongs to this same line but is not mentioned at all, and that is my reason for my inquiry to you.

I was glad to hear that you belong to the Bienville Line for I had a little information on them which I shall send to you but I did not know where they went.

Much luck to you in your inventory and many, many thanks.

Sincerely,

JIM WYNN

----Gibsland, Louisiana

There is an old farm out on Pratt's Hill Road (toward Arcadia from Gibsland) that is known as the old WYNN FARM. Buildings gone.

I have not been able to locate the burial place of Jim Wynn and his wife.

Jim Wynn and his wife had at least one child, a son, namely:

ALBERT T. WYNN 9 September 1876 - 21 April 1950 married
                  Julia Boone 24 Nov 1876 - 21 Jan 1965

Above information was taken from stone markers in the MOUNT LEBANON CEMETERY. Evidently Mr Wynne and his wife were buried among her people for there was a number of Boone markers there. I have confirmed this to be true from Mrs Jim Penneull of Homer, La whose grandfather was Judge Boone, a brother of Julia Boone.

ALBERT T. WYNN had two daughters:

1. <sup>(Mrs A.R.) west</sup> Glennie Wynn Bates, Monroe, Louisiana - I do not know her street address, or her husband's name. Her husband runs a business there.
2. Betty Sue Wynn - no information Married Letz.

There is a house in Gibsland that A T Wynn lived in and when the sidewalk was made he put his name on it. The house is located next to the residence of E. L. Reed.

A. T. Wynn ran a grocery business in Gibsland-started back in the 30's.

P.S. I shall go to Arcadia sometime this week and obtain the information you wanted from the Courthouse records.

There are Wynns at Dubach who are related to Dr. Green of Ruston, but there are 3 Dr Green's there and I do not know which one as yet.

WINN AND STONE OF VIRGINIA AND TENNESSEE

Allen Cabaniss - Professor of History
The University of Mississippi
University, Mississippi

An excellent account of the Wynne family -- the immigrant Robert Wynne (m. Mary, widow of Francis Poythress); his sons (Thomas, Robert, Joshua) and dau. Mary; Joshua's sons (Peter, Joshua Jr., Robert, William) and dau. Frances; and William's sons (John, Thomas, Robert, William Jr.) and daus. (Margaret, Elizabeth, Martha) -- is given in John B. Boddie, Virginia Historical Genealogies (Redwood City, Calif., 1954), pp. 174-190. Additional details, especially about the descendants of William Wynne, Jr., are presented in Boddie, Historical Southern Families, II (Redwood City, Calif., 1958), pp. 276-286.

The philoprogenitive quality of the Wynnes and their predilection for repeating Christian names renders it quite difficult to unravel the tangled skein of their descent. Land patents, however, and indentures establish the validity of the ensuing pedigree. William Wynne, son of Joshua and Mary (Jones) Wynne, and his wife Frances removed in 1752 to that portion of Lunenburg Co., Va., which in the same year became Halifax Co. and afterwards Pittsylvania, where he died in 1778 (Boddie, V. H. G., p. 183). His son William Jr. presumably accompanied or followed him and ultimately d. in Tazewell Co. (Boddie, H.S. F., II, p. 276). But his sons Thomas and John remained in Lunenburg near the Brunswick line. John Wynne had received a grant of land in Brunswick on the south side of Tucking Creek adjoining the land of his brother Thomas in 1746, just before the change in county line placed that land in Lunenburg (Land Patents of Va., Bk. 24, p. 275). Fifteen years later Thomas Wynne received almost 3000 acres more on both sides of Hounds Creek and also on the southern branches of Tucking Creek adjoining the land of Richard Stone (Lunenburg Co. Patent Bk. 33, p. 1047, 8/7/1761). Twice in the following year Thomas sold some of this particular land to John (surname now spelled Winn in both cases and both described as "of Lunenburg County"; Lunenburg Deed Bk. 7, p. 231, 4/8/1762, and p. 338, 7/30/1762). In 1765 John Winn (designated as "Senior") conveyed to John Winn Jr. 381 acres on the south side of Tucking Creek in Lunenburg adjoining the lands of William and John Stone (Lunenburg D. B. 10, p. 165, 5/9/1765).

Then, after a dozen years sold to John Winn, his son-in-law, 100 acres in that county beginning along Roanoke River, in exchange for similar land which he had purchased from D. B. 2, p. 73, 6/13/1768; and in 1785 Peter Winn (note spelling) of Lunenburg at last sold some land in Mecklenburg, "along Buffaloe Creek," from Matt 7, p. 44, 12/31/1785). The spelling of Lunenburg at last County of Mecklenburg, on the line along John Winn's line" (Lunenburg Deed Bk. 7, p. 44, 12/31/1785).

That Peter Winn (Wynne) is demonstrated by John B. Boddie, Historical Southern Families, II (Redwood City, Calif., 1958), pp. 276-286. W. B. 4, pp. 83, 84; "After the lower Part of my land as mentioned with ninety acres Side of the Creek which is mine and mine heirs forever..." The will to be the dau. of John Stone will, dated 2/5/1782, prob. p. 408), mentioning son-in-law Peter Winn's wife, Letty (of Richard and Mary (Yancy) Richard, dated 9/7/1793, p. pp. 160-162): "Item after my death my son Peter Winn and Letty his wife..."

From the foregoing evidence John Wynne, son of William Wynne, came to Halifax Co. but remained in Lunenburg Thomas. It follows that John Wynne was in Virginia in 1775, 1780, and 1785, and was not the son of William Wynne, as Boddie claims; it is possible that (Wynn, Winn) of Lunenburg was the son of William and Frances Wynne, as those counties (discussion of Press, 5/29/1960, p. 5D).

John, son of William Wynne, was born later than 1726. By an early date he had two daus.:

- I. Elizabeth (m. --- All below). His second wife was her he had the following children:
- II. Mourning, m. Nancy Tenn., by 1808, when she was 18.
- III. John Jr., m. Susanna, b. 1754; m. L.
- IV. Peter, b. 1754; m. L.
- V. Lucretia, m. William

Then, after a dozen years, John Stone Sr. of Mecklenburg sold to John Winn, his son-in-law, also of Mecklenburg, 141 acres in that county beginning at the mouth of Buffalo Creek along Roanoke River, in exchange for which Winn sold to Stone similar land which he had purchased in 1768 (Mecklenburg D.B. 2, p. 73, 6/13/1768; ibid. 5, pp. 46, 47, 5/12/1777). In 1785 Peter Wynne (note spelling), "of Lunenburg", purchased some land in Mecklenburg, "bounded on John Wynne's line on Buffalo Creek," from Matthew Cockerham (Mecklenburg D.B. 7, p. 44, 12/31/1785). Thereafter, in 1793, Peter Wynne (note spelling) of Lunenburg at least part of the same land "in the County of Mecklenburg, on the south side of Buffalo Creek along John Wynne's line" (Lunenburg D.B. 8, p. 348, 10/12/1793).

That Peter Wynne (Wynne) was a son of John Wynne (Wynne, Winn) is demonstrated by John's will (in which the name is spelled Winn), dated 8/17/1793, prob. 2/12/1795 (Lunenburg W. B. 4, pp. 83, 84): "Item, I give unto my Son Peter Winn the lower Part of my land according to the new line as before mentioned with ninety acres a Survey lying on the Opposite Side of the Creek which is now in his Possession to him and his heirs forever..." The will refers to John's wife as Ann, known to be the dau. of John Stone of Mecklenburg from the latter's will, dated 2/5/1782, prob. 4/8/1782 (Mecklenburg W.B. 1, p. 408), mentioning son-in-law John Winn and his wife Ann. Peter Winn's wife, Letty (or, as above, Lettice), was a dau. of Richard and Mary (Yancy) Stone, as indicated in the will of Richard, dated 9/7/1793, prob. 4/13/1795 (Lunenburg W.B. 4, pp. 160-162): "Item after my wife's decease I lend to my son in law Peter Winn and Letty his wife..."

From the foregoing evidence it appears clear enough that John Wynne, son of William and Frances Wynne, did not accompany his father to Halifax or Pittsylvania, as some have thought, but remained in Lunenburg and Mecklenburg near his brother Thomas. It follows that John Wynne in Halifax and Pittsylvania in 1775, 1780, and 1783 (Boddie, V.H.G., p. 184) was not the son of William Wynne and his wife Frances; or, alternatively, it is possible that he was the same as John Wynne (Wynn, Winn) of Lunenburg who may have owned properties in all those counties (discussion in Newport News, Va., Daily Press, 5/29/1960, p. 5D). In the latter case he was of course the son of William and Frances Wynne.

John, son of William and Frances Wynne, was b. no later than 1726. By an earlier marriage (wife's name unknown), he had two daus.:

- I. Elizabeth (m. --- Allen) and
- II. Millinder (m. Thomas, son of Richard Stone Sr.; see below). His second wife was Ann Stone, as noted above. By her he had the following children:
  - III. Mourning, m. Nancy Jones and migrated to Sumner Co., Tenn., by 1808, where he d. ca. 1816.

Peter Winn (Wynne, Wynn), son of John and Ann (Stone) Winn, was b. in 1754 and d. in Lunenburg Co. on 30 Mar. 1808. He m. Letty (Lettice) Stone (d. 1806), dau. of Richard and Mary (Yancy) Stone. Their children were:

As already observed, members of the Winn (Wynne, Wynn) family married several times into the Stone family. The progenitor of this particular branch of the family was William Stone, planter, of Bruton Parish, York Co., Va., probably a descendant of Gov. William Stone of Maryland. The will of William Stone of Bruton Parish, dated 11/25/1729, prob. 2/6 or 16/1729/30 (York Co. Wills, Orders, etc. 17, 1. 44) names wife Sarah and their children William, Ashwell, Elizabeth, and Mary. The younger William Stone (b. 1710), planter, and his wife Elizabeth, dau. of John Roberson, migrated from York through Henrico, Goochland, and Cumberland counties to Lunenburg Co., where he died (inventory of his estate recorded 3/3/1761, Lunenburg W.B. 2, p. 73), leaving at least three sons, William Jr., John, and Richard.

The wife of Richard Stone, son of William and Elizabeth, was named Mary, probably Mary Yancy. Their children were:

I. Richard Jr., m (1) Elizabeth; m (2) Jincy Winn (see above).

II. Thomas, m. Millinder Winn (see above).

III. Anna, m. Richard Townsend.

IV. Phebe, m. Minor Wilks.

V. Mary, m. Elisha Estes.

VI. Edith, m. William Winn Cockerham (see Boddie, H.S.F., III, 1959, p. 185).

VII. Elizabeth, m. James Pulliam.

VIII. Susannah, m. John Lester.

IX. Letty, m. Peter Winn (see above).

X. Ann, m. Philip Snead.

(Will of Richard Stone, dtd. 9/7/1795, prob. 4/13/1797, Lunenburg W.B. 4, p. 161; will of wife Mary Stone appears in ibid. 6, p. 148.)

John Stone, son of William and Elizabeth and brother of Richard above, in his will, dated 2/5/1782, prob. 4/8/1782, Mecklenburg W.B. 1, p. 408), named his wife Elizabeth and the following children:

I. Ann, m. John Winn (see above).

II. John Jr.

III. Eusabus.

IV. Elijah.

V. Stephen.

VI. Hezekiah.

VII. Elizabeth, m. Nathaniel McLaughlin.

It will be noted therefore that when Letty Stone, dau. of Richard and Mary, married Peter Winn, she was marrying a son of her first cousin, Ann Stone, dau. of John and Elizabeth.
Archer Winn, son of Peter and Letty, was so to speak three quarters Stone and only one quarter Winn!

Harriet Logan Winn, dau. of Archer and Cicely Ligon
(Harrison) Winn was married on 8/15/1882 at Cedar Hill, Tenn., to Ely Thomas Allen (b. Christian Co., Ky., 1/15/1851; son of Henry Allen and his wife Catharine Ann Dycus), a miller. Three children were born in Cedar Hill of this union:

For the Cabaniss connection above, see Boddie, H.S.F., V, 1960, pp. 1-4.

Patriotic service during the American Revolution is recorded for John Winn and his son Peter Winn in Public Service Claims, Court Booklet, Lunenburg Co., Va., p. 2, 3/13/1782; for Richard Stone, ibid., p. 24, 4/11/1782; and for his brother John Stone, Public Service Claims, Certificates, Mecklenburg Co., Va., No. 239, 10/1/1782.

Additional Note. Since the foregoing article was prepared for publication, the following changes should be noted in it:

- (a) John Thomas Allen, son of Ely Thomas and Harriet L. (Winn) Allen, died in Water Valley, Miss., on 27 April 1961.
- (b) Further data on the ancestry of Cicely Ligon Harrison, wife of Archer Winn, have come to light in the Virginia State Library, Richmond. Her father, as indicated above, was William Harrison (1771-1845), son of James Harrison. The first wife of William Harrison and mother of Cicely was Margaret Wade, daughter of William and Martha Wade. See Mecklenburg Co., Va., Personal Property and Land Taxes for 1792, 1796, 1809, and other years; Nottingham, Marriage License Bonds of Mecklenburg, p. 23, under date of 11/16/1790; and other references.

BAUDE OF CORRINGHAM, ES

This story of this family is found in the Archives of England. These records appear recently in this century by the state papers such as the Close Rolls, Inquisitions, etc., which extend over the centuries and are referred to as authorities.

There were no family names at the Conqueror's time, and the Normans have taken the names of the place in France, or they took the name in England.

Baud is the name of a town in Normandy, and there is no doubt that there as they were always referred to as meaning "of Baud." The name is pronounced more like "Bode" and is pronounced in our language.

This family owned the manor of Little Hadham in Hertfordshire of these two manors and their names in Corryngham we read "Curringham Londoniensi," of Hadham we read "Hadham de Episcopo Londoniensi."

William the Conqueror in 1066 came to England and this was based upon the fact by which the holders of manors were required to furnish these knights for their service for their lands to their lord or to the King.

The Bishop of London was the holder of Corryngham in Essex and Little Hadham and all the way through these records the family held these two manors of the king and services of so many knights were required to furnish these knights for their service for their lands to their lord or to the King.

Mr. William Minet, M.A., who was the holder of Little Hadham in Hertfordshire in a book on (the history of) this manor, "Hadham Hall", says that from the records that the Bauds are always shown as the holders of the manors together, that he believes

ROBERT L. LANDRUM, JR.

Dear Mr. Gamble,

I am disappointed that I have not located any proof of the surname of the wife of your JOSHUA MABRY. Have you ever obtained the Mabry births from the Albemarle Parish Register of # of Surry & Sussex Cos? I hired a genealogist to copy all the Chappells, Tuckers, Randolphs, Briggs, Malones for me. Often the names of the Godparents give one a hint at to the surname of the wife.

I have never done any thorough research on the Mabry family, for everytime some one has written me in regard to the line, I have been so swamped with work that I have advised them to write to Mrs. Draper, and I have sent her numerous items I happened to run across that might help her with her numerous lines, and she has done the same for me.

I shall be typing here at home all of this week on another order, but next week I hope to go to the library, and shall look in the index of these Lunenburg Co. books, "Reliques of the Reives," Edward Pleasants Valentine papers, etc and see if I can find any further mention of JOSHUA MABRY or a hint as to who his wife was. Have you any idea where he was living at the time of his marriage? If in Prince George or Dinwiddie, it will be very hard to prove the name of his wife, but if he was in Surry, Sussex, Southampton, Brunswick, Greensville or Lunenburg, then there surely must be a marriage bond, deed of gift or some record, which may throw light on it. I felt rather confident that I had some such record, but probably was thinking of those births of children of JOSHUA WYNNE and LUCRETIA, his wife. Genealogists always say that Lucretia always goes back to the Malone, Tucker or Wynne families. Tradition is that Malones, Tuckers, and Wynnes owned boats in part-ships before Virginia was ever settled, and that the MOORES, TUCKERS and MALONES were together in BERMUDA before settling in Va.

I feel confident that either your ancestors Margery or the mother of her GILLIAM husband was a child of HENRY RANDOLPH by his first wife, for many believe he married when quite young, and then married JUDITH MORISON and JUDITH SCARB, when he was older.

AMY BROOKS, daughter of my ancestor WILLIAM BRIGGS (died 1748) married HINCHEA GILLIAM and her aunt, FAITH BRIGGS married HINCHEA GILLIAM SR, father of Hincea, who married Amy Briggs. The birth date of the younger Hincea is given as July 30, 1729.

You did not tell me what proof you had that JOSHUA'S MABRY'S

Mr. Shannon M. Gamble
Chattanooga, Tenn

Dear Mr. Gamble,

Yes, I have spent a life time in genealogical research, doing much personal work in various famous libraries, one of the most complete of which, is here in Los Angeles. I have also spent more than a thousand dollars on genealogists in my various ancestral states, most of it in Va. As you know, genealogists usually send a few items and charge large fees; but they really are justified in that, for one can search for days and weeks, and maybe not find anything of importance. All of the Virginia Malones are from the same ancestor and his wife, Mary Wynne, descended from the famous Robert Wynne, Speaker of the House of Burgesses for a long term, than any other speaker.

The will of this Robert Wynne is preserved, mentioning his sons, Thomas and Joshua. I have all of the early wills and probably all of the valuable records, but many important items were destroyed by invading armies and fires in Dinwiddie and other counties. The fact that this will of Robert Wynne was also filed in England, where he had large possessions, saved it for his descendants. I charge as much for searching out one item, as I do for a condensed copy of all of my Malone-Wynne data. I am a professional genealogist and have quantities of data, bearing on most of the Virginia and New England families. It is impossible for me to keep the lineages in my mind and they overlap so, that it is impossible to file them properly. The Mabry (F or Payberry, Mowbray) family was connected closely with the families of many of my ancestors. The name, Lucretia, was brought to America by the Malone family and came into the Malone family by marriage into that family by conquering nobles from the mainland of Europe. Our Malone ancestor was King of Connaught, one of the first converts to Christianity, shaving his head to show his piety and called "Maol Eoin" (Bald John) and this Maol Eoin was finally Anglicized into Malone. I will send you a condensed copy of my Malone data for fifteen dollars, which only pays for my time in making the copy.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Gamble,

I have spent about ten hours at the library this week, searching through books trying to find something that might help you, and I found a few things that I consider important; but before I mention them, I wish to express my regrets that Mrs. Draper wrote you that I had stated positively that JOSHUA MABRY'S wife was a Malone. I looked up the carbon copy of the letter I wrote her in regard to the record mentioning ANN (COURTNEY) MABRY, widow of HINCHEA, and connecting her with JOSHUA & LUCRETIA MABRY and CLACK COURTNEY. I simply expressed the opinion that Lucretia might be a Malone or descended from the Malones, as genealogists had often told me that the Malone family seemed to have introduced the name, Lucretia, into Va. and that it seemed to be used only in the TUCKER, WYNNE, BRIGGS, CHAPPELL, GILLIAM and other families close kin to the Malones; and I also mentioned that some of the Clack descendants thought ANN must have been a MISS CLACK before she married Courtney, because she named her son Clack, but that Clack could have been a COURTNEY name, for CLACKS (CLARK) and COURTNEYS ~~were~~ had been connected in early days.

I also suggested that maybe JOSHUA WYNN (the third or 4th?) who is said to have married LUCRETIA MALONE, daughter of William and Ann Malone, might have died early in life, and his widow may have married JOSHUA MABRY. However I consider the names of the children of JOSHUA MABRY very important in trying to find the surname of his wife.

We have a very helpful book here- "Virginia Wills and Administrations, 1632-1800 by Clayton Torrence, published by The William Byrd Press of Richmond. It gives name, date and county of all wills in Virginia before 1800, though some of us have located wills that Torrence overlooked, so it cannot be said to be all that he claims for it. Under The JAMES JONES wills, I found a Jones will probated in Lunenburg County in 1778; and strange to say, I found a Repps Jones (spelled with two ps) will probated in Henrico Co, Va in 1689. I consider this very important, and if I were you, I would write to the Virginia State Library, Photostat Department, Richmond, Va, and ask them if they have these two wills on file there, and how much they will charge to make copies for you. I have bought dozens of wills and other documents from them, and it is so much cheaper than hiring a genealogist to copy them, or even than doing it yourself, for that old script is very hard to read even under a magnifying glass, and it is so much better to have them in your own home, where you can take time about studying them out. Unfortunately the Va. State Library has not all of the wills and other documents, but they have a great many and hope some day to have all of them on file.

So Epps

I notice that one of the children of your ancestor, Joshua Mabry, was Jordan, the name of one of my ancestors. You probably know that the original name was Jourdayne, the way the name is still pronounced in the south, and the way it should be pronounced. It is spelled various ways, for in that day, phonetic spelling was used, every clerk having a different idea about how names should be spelled, so we cannot be too hide-bound about spellings, when we begin to do genealogical research. Daniel was a MALONE name. I am wondering what that name REPS really is, for that must have been a nickname or an abbreviation. My grandfather used to say that in the old days, no one ever went out of his own family and the Bible, when they named their children, except "pore" white trash, the only exception being the family Clergyman and physician, or the army officer under which a man served.

All witnesses, Executors, guardians, Godparents, bondsmen, securities, etc. were chosen from kinspeople. The word Friend meant kinsman, usually an in-law or cousin. The word Cousin meant a close kinsman, usually a nephew or niece. Son-in-law and daughter-in-law were often used for step-son or step-daughter, and people usually spoke of their sons-in-law or daughters-in-law, just as sons and daughters, often adding the surname so as to make it plainer. The word servant had no menial significance. An assistant or anyone, who worked for another was called a servant. Some of the most famous son of Virginia, were called servants in their young days, when they were working under an older lawyer or other employer. Hoping that you may find something of interest or helpful in the following pages, I am sincerely.

(Signed) Lucile G. Pleasants

(Written at the top of the letter in pencil) I will send the data in a few days.

Births from Albermarle Parish, Sussex Co, Va.

GRAY, son of SETH ~~XX~~ WYNNE & ~~XX~~ SARAH, his wife, born June 23, 1767.

I looked through the Bristol Parish Register of Prince George but there were no Mabrys.

In Cumberland Parish, Lunenburg Co, Va 1746-1816 by Landon G. Pell, JOSHUA MABRY is mentioned several times as process-
Nov 1755; page 366-7 Sept 1759, he is with DENNIS TARKS, and AMOS TINS (or Tinns) Jr; again in 1760 he processions with DENNIS LOCKS and AMOS TIMES, JR. The following from Tyler's 12-175

I then decided to look up more about the JOSHUA WYNNE branch of the family - JOSHUA WYNNE was burgess for Charles City Co from 1695 to 1702, when he is mentioned as Major of Militia in Prince George Co and lived in the part that later became Dinwiddie. In 1702, he was made Interpreter to Indians, in 1714 he is mentioned as owning 850 acres in Prince George (afterward Dinwiddie) He married MARY JONES, daughter of PETER & MARGARET (WOOD) JONES.

JOSHUA'S son, PETER married FRANCES ANDERSON, daughter of John Anderson and widow of John Herbert, who died in 1704. She died in 1727, her will preserved names only Herbert children and a dau. MARTHA COOKE.

JOSHUA WYNNE, the 2nd, son of JOSHUA the first, married MARY 1722 and had children - ROBERT, MARTHA (b. 1720), JOSHUA (b. ~~1722~~
THOMAS (b. 1726), SLOMAN.

ROBERT, son of JOSHUA and grandson of Major JOSHUA WYNNE married FRANCES (MASON?) and had MARGARET (b 1741), MASON (b. 1745)

JOSHUA, son of JOSHUA and Grandson of Major JOSHUA, born 1722, married LUCRETIA and had SLOMAN b. 1745, JOSHUA (living in Dinwiddie in 1782) ROBERT b. 1749 (served in Revolution) The JOSHUA who died in Campbell Co in 1789 may have been the fourth JOSHUA, and the third JOSHUA, who married LUCRETIA may have died before 1750, soon after the birth of his son ROBERT (born 1749). If that is true then JOSHUA MABRY may have married the young widow, who would have been about twenty-four years old in 1750. (Written in) - I think Campbell Co was cut off from Dinwiddie. (And)- Lucretia, dau of Wm & Ann Malone, b. Jan 11, 1726.

As I have mentioned before, the name Lucretia was spelled all kinds of ways and my great grandmother, LUCRETIA TUCKER (CHAPPELL) RANDOLPH had her name spelled in records Lucy as often as Lucretia, Lucressy, Lucretia, etc. Her husband was an invalid most of his life, having been born when both of his parents were dying with tuberculosis (lung trouble or consumption in that day). His father, PETER RANDOLPH contracted pneumonia, while serving in the army during the Revolution and died a few years later. His wife, FRANCES PARHAM contracted "galloping consumption" from her husband and died in 1791- when GEORGE RANDOLPH was a small boy, so Grandmother LUCRETIA had to be the man of the family, and we find her name in many records in Sussex County, spelled many ways. GEORGE, like his father, PETER RANDOLPH, died soon after he was thirty years old.

The name FRANCES is often written FANNY; Diana is written Dinah; Susannah written Susie and Sukey. It is surprising for they used nick-names then in official documents.

In regard to that important birth of "GRAY", son of SETH & SARAH WYNNE in June 1767 in Sussex Co, Va, that SETH WYNNE for whom the son SETH W. of your ancestor, CHARLES MABRY must have been named. He must have been the son of SLOMAN WYNNE, SR, son of JOSHUA 2nd and his wife MARY. This SLOMAN WYNNE'S will was dated March 31, 1760 in Sussex Co., and proved the same year and names issue - MATTHEW, SLOMAN, LUCRETIA, ANNE, ROBERT, WILLIAM, ELIZABETH, SETH (I wonder if that Seth was really STITH, for I have seen that name written both ways, and some of the PARHAMS married into the WYNNE family). I believe that SLOMAN must have married a descendant from our PARHAMS, maybe from MATTHEW PARHAM.

C O P Y

ROBERT WINNE, son of SLOMAN above married MARY WILLIAMSON of Brunswick Co 9 Aug 1753. Maybe Sloman's daughters were married and he just gave their Christian names. If so, maybe his daughter, LUCRETIA was the wife of your JOSHUA ABBY. That will be worth investigating.

C O P Y

kinsman. Two of my ancestors did something that many did in the old days-only mentioned their married daughters by their Christian names, and one would have inferred that all of his daughters were old maids, if he had not mentioned at the end of the will the names of his grandchildren bearing names different from his.

Often as I have mentioned before, the Christian names of the children are a guide, and that is the reason I mentioned GRAY BRIGGS above, trying to account for the name of one of the sons of JOSHUA & LUCRETIA MABRY.

JOSHUA is a Wynne name; Stephen comes from the Stevens or Stephens family mentioned before; Daniel, Nathaniel, Lucretia are Malone names; Charles a Gilliam name; Jordan or Jourdainne or Jourdayne a name much used in our family connection; Rebs I cannot account for at this time.

You probably also have the record where HENRY RANDOLPH JR in 1671 or 73 confirms a gift of land to MARONEY-GILLIAM-BRIGGS, by his father, HENRY RANDOLPH SR. It is a puzzling record, but in my opinion shows undoubted kinship between your ancestors and HENRY RANDOLPH. The MALONES and GILLIAMS both seemed connected with the HARRISON family, probably through the M FLOOD family, as the wife of the early BENJAMIN HARRISON was a MISS FLOOD.

WYNNE

I think it is better to take up our WYNNE ancestor first, before beginning on the MALONE record.

The will of our ancestor, the famous ROBERT WYNNE, Burgess for Charles City Co and Speaker of the House of Burgesses for the longest period of any Virginian, is found in Va Mag of Hist & Biog 14-173 and also in Tyler's Quarterly 12-249 pages 173-174, 175, 176 (will and other data). Henning's Statutes at Large of Virginia, Vols 1 & 2 show that ROBERT WYNNE bore the title of Captain for many years and later Colonel. He acted as a Commissioner several times and was Vestryman in Charles City County, which in that day extended on both sides of the James River, including Prince George and Dinwiddie Counties.

The records do not say of which Parish he was Vestryman, and there were three in that county, but mention is made that "Vestrymen of the various parishes of Charles City County had met to determine lines, etc.," and ROBERT WYNNE is named as one of them. In the will of ROBERT WYNNE, he mentions possessions both in England and Virginia, refers to his deceased son, ROBERT, and to his living son, THOMAS WYNNE and a younger son JOSHUA WYNNE, a "daughter" Woodlief and her son, GEORGE WOODLIEF. He names his wife MARY, who he makes Executrix. He calls his step-son, "son-in-law". This step-son was FRANCIS POYTHRESS, son of FRANCIS POYTHRESS SR, former husband of MARY, the wife of ROBERT WYNNE; ROBERT WYNNE was Speaker from 1661 to 1674. The Henning's references are 25 in number in Vol II, on pages 147 through 519; also in Vol I pages 429, 527. His will is dated July 1675 and probated 15 August 1678. (Written in the name Woodlief also written Woodly & Woodlie)

C O P Y

In Dr. Tyler's "Encyclopedia of Virginia Biography" Vol 1, he suggests that CAPTAIN PETER WYNNE, who arrived in Virginia about 1603, was the ancestor of Col ROBERT WYNNE. Capt. Peter Wynne was immediately admitted to the Va. Council and was appointed Deputy-Governor by Sir Thomas Gates to serve during the absence of Gates, but Peter Wynne died before taking office.

William & Mary quarterly 22-160 mention of a letter from SIR THOMAS WYNNE member of the Virginia Co. to Carleton in 16 in _____ to arrest of some man. Some genealogists believe that this SIR THOMAS WYNNE was the father of Col. Robert Wynne and the son of CAPT PETER WYNNE.

I have found that it was ROBERT WYNNE, 2nd, (son of Thomas) who was given the title MAJOR and that the first Robert Wynne's title was not higher than Colonel. The son, THOMAS WYNNE, or CAPT THOMAS WYNNE was living in Prince George Co, Va in 1704, mentioned in the Quit Rent Rolls that year. There is a preserved record in Va giving his own deposition that he was "about fifty years old" in 1707, which would put his birth near the year 1657, if he was not trying to make himself younger than he really was, as so many do. He is entitled Captain in 1702. He and his brother, JOSHUA, were appointed INDIAN INTERPRETERS to accompany the Nottoway & Mohirron Commissioners on their trip through the north to make peace with the Seneca Indians. CAPTAIN THOMAS WYNNE moved from Prince George County to Surry Co, where in 1703 he was Justice of the Peace (See Tyler's quarterly 12-pages 174-75.)

The reference in Henning's Statutes at Large of Virginia to the above men are PETER WYNNE - Vol I page 83 (probably Vol 1)

ROBERT WYNNE Vol I pages 429, 527, II, pages 147, 148, 149, 161, 163, 179, 195, 196 (2), 213, 223, 225, 226, 228, 248, 249, 263, 276, 285, 292, 302, 310, 325, 519.

THOMAS WYNNE - Vol I page 83; Vol 8 page 645

The will of CAPTAIN THOMAS WYNNE was dated 18 Feb 1716-7 and proved 21 May, 1718 and does not name all of his children and grandchildren, as he provided generously for most of them before his death. I have a photostat of his original will obtained from the Virginia State Library at Richmond, and also a photostat copy of his deed of gift to my ancestress, MARY MALONE, wife of NATHANIEL MALONE. In his will, THOMAS WYNNE specifies certain negroes and land, which are to be sold to pay his debts and funeral expenses, etc. He gives his son, THOMAS WYNNE 200 acres of land on Stony Creek, a horse and a gun. He gives his son, ROBERT, his seal ring; to two grandchildren daughters, LUCRETIA WYNNE (also spelled Loucresy and often shortened to Lucy) and MARTHA WYNNE, "heifers"; to his loving wife, AGNES WYNNE, he leaves negroes, a gold ring, horse, furniture, and feather-bed, etc. Then he says, "I give and bequeath the rest of my estate to what nature and quality so ever to be divided equally amongst my children, making m, son, ROBERT WYNNE, my hole and sole Exec of this my last will and testament," etc. The name Lucretia is also spelled Loucresy and many other wild ways in record, just as the name _____ is more often than not spelled _olah.

C O P Y

One of the most important items in the will of THOMAS WYNNE is his reference to the brand GB on a horse, he leaves to his wife. Now that GB is GEORGE BOOTH, and those who have worked over this lineage believe that either the wife, ANGES was a Booth, or his mother, MARY, was a Booth before she m. FOYTHRESS. The witnesses to this will were - JOHN ROBERTS, JOHN RICKS, WILLIAM MOOR (Moore) RICHARD BLAND was the Administratee, which seems odd, when Robert Wynne was appointed his father's Executor. The name Robert was in the Booth family in every generation, so the Booth KINSHIP may have gone back some generations, for before the American Revolution, it seemed that marrying was only among cousins, or between cousins, I should say.

William & Mary Quarterly Vol 4, page 64 gives an inscription from a brass tablet marking tomb of RICHARD BROOKE, Esq. who died 1593 and his wife, ELIZABETH WYNNE who died 1599. This tablet names children-RICHARD, THOMAS, ROBERT, ELIZ., BARBARA, DOROTHEA. In the same Vol on page 5, is item that CAPT HUGH (looks like P. LL) and his wife, DORTHY of Charles City Co, Va bring suit against MARY WYNNE, EXECUTRIX of estate of COL ROBERT WYNNE in 1671. Dorthy was daughter of Col. Thomas Drew and she died 18 Jan 1673.

Proof that COL ROBERT WYNNE was a Vestryman found in Va Mag 41-234. I shall use Va. Mag or just Va when refering to Va. Mag. of Hist. & Biog and W. when refering to William and Mary Quarterly; and T when refering to Tyler's quarterly; and H. when refering to Henning's Statutes.

Proof that COL ROBERT WYNNE was a Commissioner found in Va 41-327 Data about the Wynne family found in Va 38-243; lists of births in Albemarle Parish of Surry & Sussex Cos Va; and on pages 242-43, the will of ROBERT WYNNE, the 1st is given and also the will abstract of his grandson, ROBERT WYNNE 2nd.

Correction of Malone data in Q 11, pages 51 & 52.

Reference to COL ROBERT WYNNE as Speaker of H.B. found in Va 18-419
" " Commissioner Va 19-28

and 21-33
Va 12-304 OWEN WYNN'S will proved 1611, mentions "my adventure in Va" and names "foster brother THOMAS, son of ROBERT, son of EVAN WYNNE"

Age of THOMAS WYNNE found in Va. 7-341.

MALONE

All of the Virginia MALONES are supposed to be descended from NATHANIEL MALONE, who married MARY WYNNE, daughter of THOMAS WYNNE, through their five sons, mentioned in his will. Evidently the father of NATHANIEL, was DANIEL MALONE, who is mentioned in 1705 as patenting land; but he must have died soon after. Tradition is that Daniel might have had another son, who moved into Maryland, for there were Malones in that section. The will of NATHANIEL MALONE is preserved, though badly faded in spots as if water had erased parts of it. Photostat copies can be obtained from the Va State Library, Richmond, postpaid for 85 cents. This will was proved Surry Co, Va in March 21. 1732. The State Library does not accept checks, send postal

C O P Y

TO Mr. Wilmer L. Hall, State Librarian, Virginia State Library, Richmond. The will of our ancestor, THOMAS WYNNE can be obtained postpaid for 65 cents; a photostat copy of deed of gift from THOMAS WYNNE "to my daughter Mary Malone (also spelled Melone), a very wonderful document, proving our descent from the Wynnes, can be obtained for 55 cents postpaid. Another very fine document a joint deed to GEORGE BOOTH (their young kinsman) for five shillings indicating that NATHANIEL and MARY (Wynne) MALONE were Executors, Administrators or guardians of some property willed to GEORGE BOOTH. This deed proved that MARY WYNNE was the wife of NATHANIEL MALONE and that she was living in 1721 when the deed was filed. This document can be obtained for 45 cents. Five cents is added to the price of each for postage, but if you order more than one, you can deduct five cents from the price of each document, after the first one, unless you order too many.

Tradition is in the family that MALONES are descended from the early Governor Moore of the BERMUDAS, through the intermarriage of MOORES and TUCKERS, for Captain DANIEL TUCKER succeeded Gov. Moore as Governor of the Bermudas before 1620.

We think that MARY was probably the oldest child of THOMAS & AGNES WYNNE, and probably was born by 1677 or sooner and married to NATHANIEL MALONE about 1690 or sooner. DANIEL MALONE is supposed to have been their oldest child, and he must have been of age by 1715, as we find he patented land on that date, though men were of age by sixteen if they married or inherited or were given land or other taxable possessions. Parents could specify at what age, they wanted their children to be considered of age. Anyone not of age, was called an infant, even if they were almost grown.

Another thing all students of genealogy should know, is that everytime a Virginian went abroad and returned, he was listed as an Emigrant and granted head-rights land, as an inducement for him to return, just as they did to newcomers. Many did not care for this head-right land, which was usually located in new counties so most of them turned the land over to kinspeople in the land business, in exchange for their passage here (ticket) and if no one in their family wanted the land, there were always exchange brokers or head-right brokers, stationed at ports, ready to pay for passage in exchange for the land. I have had clients very much upset, because they found that their ancestors were among those transported in this way, just as they were to find them called SERVANTS, and it is too bad that more publicity is not given to such things in genealogical publications. So few professional genealogists have read and studied widely the customs of early days, and tell their clients that their ancestors came over at a later date, than was time, ignorant of the fact that even if a man went to England every year on business or to attend school over there, they were each time listed as if a newcomer, when they returned.

This letter is some 11 more pages - mostly MALONE - I shall write only the references to WYNNE'S and some day when I've time I shall decipher the rest and send you a copy for you are kin to them thru MARY WYNNE married NATHANIEL MALONE.

In Surry Co records 1694-1709 page 378 - THOMAS & AGNES WYNNE of Surry Co, Va "for love and affection to son, ROBERT WYNNE" 208 acres south of JONES HOLE SWAMP. - Nov 4, 1709.

*****

Mrs Davis, who sent me, this record said that the burying ground of the Wynne family, called "JONES HOLE SWAMP" is away up in the extreme corner of Surry adjoining Prince George Co. Part of Surry was in Southwark Parish and part in Albemarle Parish of Surry and Sussex.

*****

Some have said that JOSHUA WYNNE the 2nd married LUCRETIA, daughter of my ancestors, WILLIAM & ANN MALONE. In Bristol Parish Register is this - SLOMAN (SOLOMON) son of JOSHUA and LUCRETIA, his wife, born Oct 13, 1745; Wm Malone does not mention Lucretia in his will, although the Parish Register shows she was his daughter, born in 1726; but he probably had already made a deed of gift to her.

In the will of my ancestor, WILLIAM MALONE 1st, note that he names daughters - AGNES for his mother and AMEY for his sister. He lived several years after writing and dating his will and had other children not mentioned in the will; Note also that his two uncles, ROBERT & THOMAS WYNNE were the witnesses to his will.

A BIOGRAPHY OF CAPTAIN J.W. WYNNE
by Richard L. Hartness

Jessie Watkins Wynne was born on 1 July 1839, near the red hills of Marshall County, Mississippi. He was the son of Robert E. and Sarah Watkins Wynne. After the birth of their son, the Wynne's moved to the Republic of Texas. Young Wynne early life was spent in Lynnh Flat, Nachitoches County and in Rusk County. Frontier experiences of this new country made him aware of the excitements, hardships and manly exercise incident to such life.

In April 1861 Wynne was visiting friends in Memphis when war was declared. He hastened home and in May enlisted at Henderson, Texas, as a private in Company B, a part of the Third Texas Calvary, Ross' Brigade; and served with this unit throughout the war's duration.

His first battles were at Oak Hill and Wilson's Creek, Missouri in August 1861. He sustained a head wound at Wilson's Creek and in less than a year he was promoted to Second Lieutenant. He came with General Sterling Price to the Trans-
and
Mississippi Department in 1862, participated in the action around Elk's Horn, and Thirteen months after his enlistment he was now Captain and company commander and only 21 years old. He led his unit thru battles at Farmington, Iuka, Corinth, Resaca, Kennesaw Mountain and Atlanta. In August 1864 Wynne was wounded in the arm near New Hope Church (Battle of Resaca), during the Georgia campaign. It is said that General W.H. Jackson visited and personally complimented Wynne while visiting in the field. Later that year he was captured near Jonesboro, Georgia.

Misleading his captors into Confederate lines, he had the help of Adjutant Gregg of his regiment and the pleasure of personally marching the prisoners to his headquarters.

After the war, Captain Wynne was paroled with the Ross Texas Brigade at Schreveport, Louisiana. Needing money and realizing the good price for beef he had heard about in Eastern Arkansas, he returned to Texas and helped drive a herd to Arkansas. The thriving St. Francis riverport, Madison, Arkansas, in St. Francis County was his final destination.

From the money he made he remained in Madison for only a short time, then moved to Forrest City. Wynne met two gentlemen named Dennis and Beck, and the three of them organized a very successful furnishing merchants firm.

As individuals began to gain wealth in the new self-governing South, after Reconstruction ended, secure places to store their fortunes were needed. There were no banks. But, firms like Wynne, Dennis and Beck agreed to hold these savings. Eventually, there was more savings than safe storage space. Wynne and other leading merchants wanted a bank. The Bank of Eastern Arkansas was the result. And, Captain Wynne was its first president.

The St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern Railroad had passed Forrest City and was completed thru the area to Knobel, Missouri, in 1882. Settlements like Cherry Valley and Vann Dale in Cross County moved from atop Crowley's Ridge to the railside. Active steamboat riverports like Wittsburg, Cross County, and Madison, St. Francis County, were deserted for the rails. And, other settlements were created anew.

Wynne, named in compliment to Captain Wynne, was located in 1882 when a train derailed leaving one boxcar without wheels and off the track. The car was placed upright and designated "Wynne Station". On 27 September 1882, the Wynne postoffice was opened. When the east-west Bald Knob branch came from Memphis, it crossed the north-south Knobel line near the boxcar, thus the name "Wynne Junction" evolved.

By 1888 the word Junction was dropped and on 28 May that year the town was incorporated by an order of the county court.

Captain Wynne decided he would move to Memphis. Liquidation of Wynne, Dennis and Beck was simple. Stock was divided by equal worth three ways, then Captain Wynne told the other two to make their choice and he would take that remaining.

As a going-away gift Captain Wynne was given a gold-knobbed, ebony cane from the Directors and Cashier of the Bank of Eastern Arkansas. It was during 1889 that Wynne departed for Memphis.

In the Mississippi riverport Wynne became involved in the cotton factorage business. The firm was called Wynne, (W.E.) Love and Company.

Wynne had married Miss Margaret R. Wynne of Holly Springs, Mississippi in 1869. They had three sons: Joel E., Hugh R. and Jessie W., Jr. respectively. The family had an elegant Memphis residence on Union Avenue, and Mr. Wynne was a Democrat; a Methodist, on the boards of a Memphis bank and an oil company, and a member of the Confederate Historical Association of Memphis after March 1891.

Captain Wynne died at his home in Memphis on 6 May 1907 and was buried in Holly Springs, Mississippi, on 8 May 1907.

*****

On 15 July 1973 Captain Wynne's grandson, Hugh Wynne of Memphis gave the Cross County Historical Society the Civil War Record and only known original picture of his grandfather, both in beautiful frames, and the cane mentioned in the sketch above. Commenting on the gift, Mr. Wynne said:" The rightful place for these (the gifts) is here, where everyone in this area can enjoy them, and I am only too glad to give them to you."

Dear Mr. Vaughn:

It has been sometime since I last wrote to you, in fact looking in my file it was Jan. 17, 1968, and the last time I had a letter from you was an August 11, 1967.

The reason I have not written before this time is only because I have been ill once again. But however I am back with it once again. Still working with this WINN, WINNE, WYNN, WYNNE Family Association. The only two other persons in the Family Association who are working on the same Winn line as you are, are Mrs. W.W. Mc Donald 404 N. Polk Ave, Jonesboro, Louisiana 71251, and Mrs. T.L. Bean 2505 W. 17th Street, Little Rock, Arkansas, 72202.

Write to them if you have not already. I am still working on putting into family group sheets for you of which I have already did for Mrs. Mc. Denlad & Mrs. Bean on the line you all are working on. If you would send me the information on yourself on back as far as you can go I could tie you in with the information I have from Mrs. Mc Donald & Mrs. Bean. I could combine it and resend it out to all 3 of you. This what this Association is about, to help one another, even if we are related at this time.

I have written up this rough draft of a Constitution and By - Laws of the WINN, WINNE, WYNN, WYNNE, Family Association. for approval by the present 13 members, we are going to have to do something of this sort, with the way the Association is growing. I have the names and address of 25 others who are interested in joining the Association, who are working on WINN, WINNE, WYNN, WYNNE Families.

I think that we should do this and make it a first class Association. I feel that this is the time to do so before we get any larger.

Let me have you the copy I am sending to you back signed by you to let me have your approval or your disapproval. If I let anything out please let me know. For this I would be grateful. I beg to remain

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Landrum:

Thank you kindly for your recent letter and Wynn data. I am sorry I do not have much to contribute. I see by your enclosed envelope you expected more (10¢ stamps).

I do think the Wynn family association would be great. I am forwarding your letter to a lady in California with whom I have been corresponding. She and I both come from Wynns of Warren County, Georgia but we have not at this point tied them together.

Incidentally, I have Wynns on my mother's side and Gwynns on my father's. No relation at all, but I was aware the name came from Gwynn.

Below is what little I have; (Starting with my oldest known ancestor).

* Thomas Wynn, b. ca. 1798 in Georgia (I do not know which county)

m/1 Nancy Heath in 1817 in Warren County, Ga.

Children:

* Henry A. Wynn, b. 1821 in Warren Co., Ga. (mine) See later

Emily Frances Wynn, b. ? m. Wm. R. Thompson

I am the oldest child of Winnie Ethel Davis Raines and Oscar H. Raines. I have spent most of my time on Raines research since I became a genealogist NUT, which has been only about four years.

Now to sum up my present problem on Wynns. I need the parents of Thomas Wynn, b. ca. 1798. There were so many by the name of Thomas that I have not been able to pin this particular one down.

Let me know if I can supply any further information on my clan.

Sorry, but I do not seem to have anything to help you unless some of this means something to you.

Again, let me thank you for all your efforts.

Dear Mr. Landrum,

I am so pleased to hear an Association concerning the Wynne line is being formed.

My information concerning my John Winn is as follows.

John Winn born Virginia
- Dec 31 - 1759 - d - 1838
M. Myrtala Mynor 1787 -
Springfield Ohio

Sunenburg - (Recorded)
Children - Jane, Suser, Charles
Douglas, Richard, Myrtala and John.

Daughter Jane m. John Dimsley
Caldwell
Children - John, Charles, Robert
Mary, Marita Susanna
+ James (James my great Grandfather) married Emma Mc Beth.

ROBERT L. LANDRUM, JR.

John Winn left Virginia and taught school in Kentucky.
It is written in W H Beers & Co.
John Winn was well educated.
When John and Myrtella left Kentucky they owned twenty slaves inherited from Myrtella father. John freed all the negroes and gave his name as security for their good behavior. It is stated in Springfield Church records that John Winn built the first Baptist church there. I know these things to be true as I was the last one of that line to be born where he settled.

I also have math papers,
of his grandson John Winn Baldwell, where he had worked algebra problems
for him.

I have enclosed two pictures that may be of interest - The one is easily read - The other is the stone of Charles Winn.

It is my belief that they were from Amelia, Va.
John Winn and James Rawlings came to Urbana in 1805 -
The pictures I took were in Rawlings cemetery - Urbana township a granddaughter of John Winn married a Rawlings.

Hope you are able to understand all of this.
I have more I will get together
if you think it would be of value -

Sincerely
(Mrs Paul) Choe Jane Keiser
